JOURNAL

OF THE

THIRTY-THIRD ANNUAL COUNCIL OF THE PROTESTANT EPISCOPAL CHURCH IN THE DIOCESE OF WEST VIRGINIA.

CHRIST CHURCH, FAIRMONT, W. VA.,
Wednesday, June 1st 1910.

Morning prayer was read at 10 a. m. by the Rev. Geo. A. Gibbons and the Rev. Edmund P. Dandridge. Bishop Peterkin took the ante-communion, Bishop Gravatt reading the epistle.

The Council Sermon was preached by the Rev. John T. Crowe of Bramwell from the text Acts X, 44.

The Holy Communion was administered by the Rt. Rev. the Bishop of the Diocese assisted by the Bishop Coadjutor.

Divine service being ended, the council was called to order by the Bishop. In the absence of the secretary at a funeral, the Rev. John S. Gibson was appointed Secretary pro tem.

The roll call did not show a quorum of both orders present. Only eight parishes were represented by lay delegates. Whereupon the Bishop called the council to assemble at 2:30 p. m.

2:30 P. M.

The Council met in the Sunday School room of Christ Church. The Bishop in the chair. A quorum of both orders was present. The Bishop declared the Council duly organized for the transaction of business. Dr. G. A. Aschman was appointed treasurer pro tem.

The adoption of rules of order being the first order of business. The Rev. L. W. S. Stryker offered in lieu of the existing order of business in the Rules of Order an Order of Business, which was adopted. Then on his motion this order of Business was ordered to be printed in the Journal after the list of Clergy and Laity.

The Bishop appointed the following committees:

Rev. J. Brittingham.	Maj. E. H. McDonald.
Rev. Guy H. Crook.	Mr. W. D. Sell.
Mr. Wm. Weidebusch.

Unfinished Business.

Rev. Dr. Roller.	Mr. W. T. Hartman.
Rev. J. L. Fish.	Mr. John Aglionby.
Rev. Jno. E. Ewell.	Mr. C. A. Miller.

Bishop Peterkin read his annual address as follows:

It is my privilege to greet the Council, meeting to-day for the first time, in Christ Church, Fairmont. My first visit to Fairmont was on Friday, June 7, 1878, when I preached in the Methodist Church, and confirmed seven persons. I find this note of my visit: "Our church building in the town of Fairmont, known as Christ Church, has been for some time considered unsafe." During this visit I understood that twenty-two hundred dollars had been raised toward the building of a new church. This church was afterwards completed under the rectorship of Rev. George A. Gibbons. It is that in which we meet to-day. It was considered ample at the time for all demands, and was counted as one of our best buildings. Having now been in use since August, 1880, the congregation has, owing to the unprecedented development of the town, determined that a change of location, and an enlargement of church accommodations are necessary, to meet the reasonable demands of this growing city, and have already entered heartily upon this new and important work, under the leadership of Rev. Mr. Beavin, to whom we bid a hearty God-speed.

Rev. Mr. Gibbons who was the Rector on the occasion of my first visit, remained until 1885, completing ten years of service. Since that time he has had charge of the churches at Romney and Moorefield, and we honor him for his twenty-five years of faithful and successful service in that field. Of the twelve clergymen who signed my testimonials on March 1, 1878, Mr. Gibbons is the only one left in the diocese. Seven have died and four removed to other fields. Of the sixteen laymen who united with the clergy in signing these testimonials, six are still with us; nine have died, and one has moved to another state. Since that time we have received one hundred and fifty-two clergy to the diocese, of which number thirty-eight still remain. And so the procession moves on. May the good Lord give us all grace to do our duty faithfully where he has placed us, that when the Chief Shepherd shall appear, we may receive the crown of glory that fadeth not away.

JUNE.

The 32nd Annual Council met in St. Paul's Church, Weston, on Wednesday, June 2, 1909. In addition to the business sessions, we had the usual Missionary meetings, and also the annual meeting of the Women's Women's Auxiliary. The Council also enjoyed a very pleasant reception at the home of Hon. Lewis Bennett. On Sunday morning, June sixth, after a sermon by Rev. Mr. Grinnan, a former Rector, I confirmed nine persons, and at the evening service, I preached the closing sermon.

Tuesday, 8th. The Board of Missions in New York.

Sunday, 13th. St. Paul's Church, Haymarket, Va.

Monday, 4th. Friday, 18th. In attendance on the closing exercises of the Seminary and High School, consisting of examination of candidates, meetings of the Education Society and of the Trustees, Commencement at the High School, and Annual Meeting of the Alumni of the Seminary.

Friday, 18th. In the Seminary Chapel I ordained Walter Blaine McKinley, deacon.

Sunday, 20th. Christ Church, Richmond, Va., acting for Bishop Gibson, I confirmed fifteen persons.

Sunday, 27th. A. M. St. John's, Williamstown. P. M. Messiah, Waverly; confirmed 1.

JULY.

Sunday, 4th. A. M. and P. M. Good Shepherd, Parkersburg; the Rector being absent at my request, filling the pulpit at the White Sulphur.

Friday, 9th. Preached in a hall at Tunnelton; we are working towards a church in this town.

Sunday, 11th. A. M. Berkeley Springs, St. Mark's; confirmed 4. P. M. Mt. Zion, Hedgesville.

Sunday, 18th. Church of the Good Shepherd, Parkersburg.

Thursday, 22nd. Visited Glendale on business with Archdeacon Spurr.

Friday, 23rd. Visited Moundsville and Willow Island, on business. At the latter place the conference was with reference to putting up a new church near the river, to take the place of the old frame building, which dates from 1852. Not only is this building now becoming dilapidated, but the center of population has so changed, in the half century that has elapsed since it was erected, that the location is no longer desirable.

Sunday, 25th. A. M. Grace Church, Tavennersville. P. M. Took part in service of the Church of the Good Shepherd, the Rev. W. K. Marshall, formerly in charge of the work, preaching the sermon.

Tuesday, 27th. Visited Charleston on business.

Wednesday, 28th. A. M. Visited the Sheltering Arms Hospital on business. P. M. Christ Church, Pt. Pleasant. After service conferred with the vestry about the vacancy occasioned by the removal of Rev. J. H. Gibbons to Ashland, Ky.

AUGUST.

Sunday, 1st. Officiated A. M. and P. M. in Trinity Church, Parkersburg; Rector being absent, at my request, preaching at the White Sulphur.

Tuesday, 3rd. Visited Grafton; through some misunderstanding there was no service.

Wednesday, 4th. Preached in the Presbyterian Church, Belington.

Thursday, 5th. Grace Church, Elkins; confirmed 3; also met the vestry.

Sunday, 8th. A. M. Consecrated Grace Church, Clover Lick, and confirmed 1. This is the old church which was located at a point a mile or two distant, and consecrated August 21, 1892. Owing to changing population it was deemed best to move it nearer the depot, and so great were the difficulties involved in taking it to pieces, that it may be considered practically a new building. P. M. Preached in St. John's Church, Marlinton. This is a new and sightly building, rendered necessary by the change of the church from Huntersville. The rector and congregation deserve great credit for their energy displayed in the work; and our thanks are due to the Hon. John T. McGraw for his liberality in giving a desirable lot.

Monday, 9th. Preached in the Presbyterian Church, Huntersville. Notwithstanding removals, we still have a few faithful members in this neighborhood.

Tuesday, 10th. Met the vestry at Marlinton, and consulted with them about building a rectory.

Sunday, 15th. A. M. and P. M. Church of the Good Shepherd, Parkersburg.

Sunday, 22nd. A. M. Trinity Church, Martinsburg; also visited and addressed the Sunday School. P. M. Trinity Church, Shepherdstown.

Sunday, 29th. A. M. Trinity Church, Parkersburg. P. M. Good Shepherd Church, Parkersburg.

SEPTEMBER.

Friday, 3rd. Assisted Mr. McDonald in the funeral service of Mr. R. H. Browse, near Grape Island. Mr. Browse was a faithful and consistent Christian man, devoted to his church, and active and liberal in its service.

Sunday, 5th. A. M. and P. M. Church of the Good Shepherd, Parkersburg.

Sunday, 19th. Church of the Advent, Cape May, N. J.

Monday, 27th. In New York, attending meeting of Board of Missions and various committees connected.

OCTOBER.

Sunday, 3rd. St. James Church, Richmond, Va.

Monday, 6th. Assisted in a wedding in Christ Church, Alexandria, Va.

Thursday, 7th. St. John's, Harper's Ferry.

Friday, 8th. St. John's Ripon. These two churches have been for some months under the charge of Mr. W. H. Cumpston, of the Theological Seminary of Virginia, who has most faithfully and efficiently ministered to the people in the limited time at his disposal.

Sunday, 10th. On the mountain near Charles Town, preached A. M. in Christ Church, and in St. Andrew's in the afternoon. These chapels, under the temporary charge of Mr. Halleck of the Seminary, are well fulfilling their missions. P. M. St. Philip's, Charles Town.

Wednesday, 13th. St. Andrew's, Mannington. Mr. Beavin of Fairmont, extends his ministrations to this Mission, and there are encouraging signs of development.

Thursday, 14th. At the Reynold's Memorial Hospital had a conference with Bishop Gravatt and Archdeacon Spurr.

Sunday, 17th. A. M. St. Paul's, Sistersville; also visited the Sunday school. P. M. Grace Church, St. Marys.

Wednesday, 20th. By appointment of the Presiding Bishop, took part in the consecration of Rev. Dr. Arthur S. Lloyd, as Bishop Coadjutor of Virginia; uniting with Bishop Tucker in presenting the candidate.

Thursday, 21st. St. Stephen's, Romney; also conducted devotional exercises for the Woman's Auxiliary at the Rectory.

Saturday, 23rd. Moorefield, attended meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary in the Parish House.

Sunday, 24th. A. M. and P. M. Preached in Emanuel Church, and in the morning confirmed three.

Wednesday, 27th. Officiated at a funeral, Trinity Church, Parkersburg.

Thursday, 28th. St. Elizabeth's Church, near Wheeling. This is one of the very few churches for deaf mutes in the country. It is under the care of the Rev. Mr. Whildin, residing in Baltimore, who pays a visit each month. Meantime being assisted by a lay reader. I confirmed four, and with the kind assistance of Mrs. Zane, I was able to make an address.

Friday, 29th. In Trinity, Parkersburg, I confirmed four deaf mutes, Mr. Whildin conducting the service.

Sunday, 31st. A. M. and P. M. Trinity, Huntington; also visited the Sunday School, and in the afternoon, after service by Mr. Whildin, I confirmed four of the congregation of deaf mutes.

NOVEMBER.

Monday, 1st. Trinity, Huntington, at 10 a. m. celebrated Holy Communion. P. M. St. Mark's, St. Albans, preached and confirmed 1.

Tuesday, 2nd. Preached in M. E. Church, Racine. Our own church which was built through the energy of Mr. Peyton is too far off from the center of population; we, therefore, now hold our very infrequent services in Racine, and have bought land across the river in the proposed town of that we may utilize it when necessary.

Rev. Mr. Campbell, who resides near Racine, has nominally charge of this mission, but his health does not permit him to officiate.

Thursday, 4th. Visited the Sheltering Arms, and went on in the afternoon to Hinton, to welcome Rev. Mr. Davidson, newly come to the diocese.

Sunday, 7th. A. M. Church of the Good Shepherd, Parkersburg. P. M. Took part in the service.

Tuesday, 9th. Board of Missions, New York.

Wednesday, 10th. In attendance on the Missionary Council of the 3rd District in Washington.

Thursday, 11th. The Seminary; meeting of the trustees. P. M. Meeting of Laymen's Missionary Movement.

Sunday, 14th. A. M. and P. M. Memorial Church, Baltimore.

Tuesday, 16th. Christ Church, Cambridge, Md.

Sunday, 21st. Parkersburg, Trinity.

Thursday, 25th. Thanksgiving Day, Good Shepherd, Parkersburg.

Sunday, 28th. A. M. and P. M. Church of the Nativity, Huntsville, Ala., and in the afternoon baptized a child.

DECEMBER.

Friday, 3rd. Wheeling, St. Matthew's; sermon for church workers.

Sunday, 5th. A. M. Wheeling, St. Matthew's. P. M. St. Luke's. In the afternoon, with Mr. Stryker, visited Elm Grove and was glad to witness the reorganization of the Sunday school of St. Paul's Mission.

Monday, 4th. Visited Wellsburg and met the women's Auxiliary.

Tuesday, 7th. Wheeling, St. Matthew's. Addressed a general Missionary meeting.

Sunday, 12. Parkersburg, Good Shepherd.

Sunday, 19th. Parkersburg, Good Shepherd.

Saturday, 25th. Parkersburg, Good Shepherd; attended service.

Sunday, 26th. Parkersburg, Good Shepherd. P. M. Chirst Church, Williamstown.

Monday, 27th. Addressed the Sunday School of the Good Shepherd, Parkersburg, at their Christmas celebration.

Friday, 31st. Parkersburg, Good Shepherd; address on the last night of the old year.

1910—JANUARY.

Sunday, 2nd. A. M. Parkersburg, Good Shepherd. P. M. Took part in service.

Sunday, 9th. A. M. Ogontz, Penna., St. Paul's morning and afternoon. Evening addressed the children at the Widener Home for crippled children.

Tuesday, 11th. New York, Board Meeting.

Saturday, 15th. Parkersburg, meeting at Y. M. C. A. to consider Laymen's Missions Movement.

Sunday, 16th. A. M. Trinity, Parkersburg. In afternoon spoke to a Laymen's meeting in same church. P. M. Good Shepherd.

Tuesday, 18th. Clarksburg. The N. W. Convocation.

Thursday, 20th. Preached Tuesday P. M. and attended the services and meetings of the Convocation.

Sunday, 23rd. A. M. and P. M. Parkersburg, Good Shepherd.

Tuesday, 25th. Wheeling, in Scottish Rite Cathedral, made an address before the Laymen's Missionary Movement meeting.

Thursday, 27th. Huntington, in Presbyterian church, made an address before the Laymen's Missionary Movement meeting.

Friday, 28th. Huntington, Trinity Church; attended a meeting of the congregation and convention; called in the interest of the L. M. M.

Sunday, 30th. A. M. St. Marys, Grace Church; preached and confirmed four and addressed the Sunday School. P. M. Parkersburg, Good Shepherd.

FEBRUARY.

Tuesday, 2nd. Thursday 4th. Huntington, Trinity; Kanawha Convocation; administered the communion, and on last evening made an address on Diocesan Missions.

Sunday, 6th. A. M. Parkersburg, Good Shepherd; took part in service, Rev. Mr. Hiatt preaching.

In the afternoon made an address at the Y. M. C. A. at a mass meeting. P. M. Williamstown, Christ Church; took part in the service, Rev. Mr. Hiatt preaching.

Wednesday, 9th. A. M. Parkersburg, Good Shepherd; celebrated the Holy Communion. P. M. Made an address at Trinity, in the interest of the Laymen's Movement.

Sunday, 20th. Richmond, Va., St. James.

Friday, 25th. Richmond, Va., Holy Trinity, Good Friday.

Sunday, 27th. Henrico Co., Emanuel, Easter Day. P. M. Part in children's service; Bishop Lloyd making the address.

APRIL.

Sunday, 3rd. A. M. Wellsburg, Christ Church; confirmed six, and celebrated Holy Communion.

Follansbee Hall (in afternoon) Rev. J. D. Gibson has taken hold of this work with energy and discretion, and good results have been already achieved. P. M. Wheeling, St. Andrew's.

Mr. Clarke has made various improvements since he took charge, and brought the congregation up to a high degree of efficiency. This work is largely helped by Archdeacon Spurr.

Monday, 4th. A. M. Visited Reynolds' Memorial Hospital, and was gratified at its good condition. P. M. St. Ann's, New Martinsville; confirmed 8.

Tuesday, 5th. In Trinity Church, Moundsville; I celebrated the Holy Communion; attended two meetings of the Sunday School Institute and at the evening service, preached.

Wednesday, 6th. Officiated at funeral of Mrs. J. W. Norris, at Willow. Owing to the inaccessibility and the bad condition of St. John's Church, the services were held in the Baptist Church. Mrs. Norris was one of our most valued members, and will be greatly missed.

Thursday, 7th. Attended Laymen's banquet in Parkersburg, and spoke a word of counsel.

Sunday, 10th. A. M. and P. M. Ascension Church, Hinton; confirmed six, also visited and addressed the Sunday School.

Monday, 11—Tuesday, 12th. New York Board of Missions and committees connected; on the 11th, spoke at the church club of the diocese of Newark, in E. Orange.

Friday, 15th. St. Albans, St. Mark's Church; confirmed six.

Sunday, 17th. Charleston, St. John's; confirmed twelve, also visited the Sunday School. In the afternoon preached at St. Luke's. P. M. St. Matthew's; confirmed five. Mr. Lewis has recently taken charge of St. Albans and St. Luke's and St. Matthew's, Charleston, and is pushing the work with his usual vigor.

Monday, 18th. Preached in Beckley, Presbyterian Church. Rev. Mr. Davidson has revived the plan for building of a church at this point, and the people here, as at Hinton, greatly regret his removal.

Wednesday, 20th. Charleston, First Presbyterian Church; addressed the State Sunday School Convention.

Thursday, 21st. Carbon (School house).

Friday, 22nd. Wake Forest (School house). Here it seems possible and expedient to build at an early day.

Sunday, 24th. A. M. Ansted, Church of the Redeemer, visited and addressed the Sunday School; confirmed five. P. M. Calvary, Montgomery. The Rev. Mr. Bourne was with me at these last two points; he has had temporary charge of the work, but now goes to Southern Florida.

Saturday, 30th. At Middleway met the Ladies' Guild and the vestry of Nelson Parish.

MAY.

Sunday, 1st. A. M. Middleway; visited and addressed the Sunday School Summit Point. P. M. Leetown. P. P. M. Middleway.

Monday, 2nd. Confirmed in private, (on account of sickness), two persons, belonging to Grace Church, Middleway. P. M. St. Margaret's, Fairview.

Tuesday, 3rd. Berkeley Springs, St. Mark's Church. The church here and at Hedgesville were, in April, made vacant by the removal of Mr. Grinnan to Virginia.

Wednesday, 4th. Shepherdstown, Trinity Church. In private I confirmed one, presented by Mr. Marshall.

Thursday, 5th. Harper's Ferry, St. John's.

Friday, 6th. With Bishop Gravatt visited St. Andrew's, on the mountain. Miss Birdseye has this work well in hand. About fifty children attend the day school and twenty the night school.

Saturday, 7th. Met many of the congregation of Zion Church, Charles Town at a reception given at the Rectory.

Sunday, 8th. A. M. Visited and addressed the Sunday School of Zion Church; preached in Zion Church at the morning service; in the afternoon visited and addressed the Sunday School at St. Philip's and P. M. preached to St. Philip's congregation in the hall they have rented until their church, which was nearly destroyed by fire, can be repaired. Their experience emphasized the importance of insurance. It was a marvel that the whole property was not swept away. As it is they can repair the church and the rectory, but will not be able to rebuild the school. The congregation does not seem to be discouraged, and will, I trust, be soon in their restored church.

Monday, 9th—Tuesday, 10th. New York, Board of Missions and committees connected.

Wednesday, 11th. Hedgesville, Mt. Zion Church. In attendance at the Eastern Convocation; I preached at the A. M. service and administered the Lord's Supper; in the afternoon attended the business session, and at the evening service, after a Missionary address by Mr. Alfriend, I spoke to the congregation.

Thursday, 12. Attended two business meetings of Convocations.

Sunday, 15th. A. M. Parkersburg, Trinity Church. P. M. Parkersburg, Good Shepherd.

Monday 16. Williamson (M. E. Ch.) The town of Williamson has greatly developed in the past few years, and we hope that our long cherished plan of building a church for our small flock may now speedily be realized.

Tuesday 17. Gary, (M. E. Ch.) Confirmed 2. Great interest is manifest in Gary in our services and liberal support given to them.

Wednesday 18. Welch (Presbyterian Ch.) Confirmed 2. On the morning of the 19th attended a meeting of gentlemen interested in having a resident minister in Welch, and with Mr. Crowe and Mr. McKinley, quite thoroughly went over the situation. They expressed their readiness to add $1500 to the sum of about $1200 already in hand, and then to raise an annual salary fund of $500. I gave them all the encouragement I could, and told them that with their Church building complete, and with that at Williamson also completed. I thought these two places could be combined, and would be able with help from the Diocesan Committee to sustain a minister.

Thursday 19th. Eckman, Grace Ch.

Friday 20. Mora. Union Ch., confirmed 1.

Sunday 22. A. M. Bramwell Holy Trinity Ch. This town has been severely crippled by a very disastrous fire during the last winter which has caused many removals.

P. M. Bluefield, Christ Ch. Conf. 11. With the rapid growth of the town, the Church has been making corresponding growth under the wise and energetic leadership of Mr. Trapnell. During the last two years it has become self supporting and has great promise of still greater development.

Monday 23. Princeton. Ch. of the Heavenly Rest. The growth of this town has been very great in the last three or four years, and the corresponding interest and increase in our Church also great, so that we expect to place a resident minister here at once, combining with it Beckley and intermediate points. This church has just had a narrow escape from destruction by fire.

Tuesday 24. Page. Consecrated Epiphany Church and confirmed 2. After sermon by Archdeacon Spurr. The work at this point was begun several years ago by Rev. Mr. Lewis, who now rejoices with many others at this happy consummation.

Wednesday 25. Hansford. Sheltering Arms Hospital. Attended the annual meeting of the Corporators, and two sessions of the Board of Directors, and in the Chapel of the Good Shepherd, after a brief service conducted by Bishop Gravatt and an address by the Hon. Wm. Seymour Edwards, I delivered the diplomas of our training school for nurses to four graduates. The hospital continues its beneficent work, and more than justifies the expectation of its friends. Its equipment is so complete, and its natural advantages so great that it can hardly be surpassed anywhere in the country. The number of patients cared for last year was 926 in the wards and rooms, and 60 outside, making a total of 986.

Perhaps few realize the extent of the work carried on at the Sheltering Arms. We estimate the plant to be worth about $110,000, of which $85,000 is on account of recent improvements. All paid for except about $6,000. There is still needed a little money. Say two or three thousand dollars with which to put the grounds in good order, and at sometime in the near future we may undertake to put needed repairs on the old building which now furnishes quarters for our attendants, and also greatly needed room for the use of the mission.

The disbursement last year for all purposes were $23,920.80 of which $5,403.28 was spent on the maintenance, and improvement of the property and insurance (much of it incident to the completion of the new plant), leaving $18,577.52 for what might properly be called current expenses. This includes all administration expenses, servants &c. The salary of the superintendent and all nurses; the medical and surgical supplies; the fuel, ice, and transportation, and all expenditures connected with the housekeeping department, laundry &c., and when you consider that the household would average perhaps 75, and may sometimes run up to 100 persons, and take into the account, the increased cost of living, you must acknowledge that such a report is satisfactory.

To meet these expenses the Hospital depends chiefly on the regular payments of the miners themselves, and we desire to express our appreciation of their cordial co-operation, as of that of the operators who kindly use their office force in collecting on their pay rolls, the $19,610.14 which last year came to us from this source. In addition to this we had from the Diocese as their offering on Thanksgiving day $944.62, and from our endowment $1,388.10, and from the few pay patients for whom we are able to provide $1,194.35. Our expenditures during the past year exceeded our receipts by $622.28, but by virtue of a balance brought over from the previous year we have about $900 on hand with which to start another year.

Thursday 26. At Beury, baptized four infants.

Sunday 29. A. M. Parkersburg, Church of the Good Shepherd. P. M. Christ Memorial. Williamstown, preached and confirmed 2.

The receipts during the last half of the year are small, so a large balance is needed to tide us over until our next appeal is made in advent.

DIOCESAN MISSIONS.

As you understand, I have put the burden of our Diocesan Missions upon the Bishop Coadjutor, but in passing I call attention to a new departure in our methods of raising money, which I desire to see inaugurated at this council, viz, the supplementing the assessment plan by having pledges from all our congregations made in open council, in connection with the public missionary meeting on Thursday evening. I believe that in this way the obligation to support this work will be more generally realized, and the enthusiasm wrought up during the council, will be available for furthering the work.

There is no intention of interfering with the assessment made by the council, but since we need more money for our work, the plan suggested seemed such as might provide the additional amount, without increasing the assessment, which, in the case of the many churches which contribute more than the amount assessed, might seem like fixing a penalty upon their liberality.

An illustration of the possibilities in thus calling out undeveloped resources I would record here the result of the Laymen's Missionary League, inaugurated at our last Council and running its course during the months of June, July and August. More than 1,100 persons came forward and gave, over and above their usual contribution, the handsome sum of $1,630. which was equally divided between Diocesan and General Missions, and so far as my observation goes there was no interference with, or hinderance of other work. Is not the lesson that we may expect a response when there is a suitable call?

We have suffered, and are still suffering from an unusual number of transfers to other Dioceses. We have lost eight during the past year of our clergy, and received only four, and one of these by ordination, these men who have left us ministered to some 25 churches and missions, and their loss has been seriously felt. There are still 5 charges vacant comprising 17 churches and missions. We shall fill two of these by an ordination on June 17th, and supply most of the others, for a time at least by sending to them students during their Seminary vacation, meantime exerting ourselves to make permanent arrangements. We have been greatly assisted during the past year by two young men from the Seminary, who have kept supplied 4 chapels, within a comparatively short distance of the Seminary. There are however objections to this method of supply, and we cannot be satisfied until we have filled up to the full number of our clergy. We need immediately 5 clergy to maintain the work already undertaken.

This condition of things is one that should prompt us to adopt the plan proposed, or some other that promises an increase in our missionary funds. I cannot but think that if we provided more liberally for our missionaries we could hope to retain their services for a longer time. It is in my knowledge that time and again our men have declined calls that promised a larger support than they were receiving. They have loyally stood by their work, but the necessities of the case have at length in some cases overcome their reluctance to leave the Diocese, and we have suffered corresponding loss. We must continue to pray the Lord of Harvest to send forth laborers into His Harvest, for we have great need of earnest, self-denying men, but we must not forget how the same Lord has told us that the laborer is worthy of his hire.

INEXPENSIVE CHURCHES.

I have been greatly interested in the building of inexpensive churches, in places where for lack of a building the congregation could call its own, the work of the church has been greatly hindered. No doubt our great work is to preach the Gospel, and that has been done effectively, not only in church buildings kindly loaned us, but in school houses and court rooms, in the cottages of friends, and often under the spreading trees of a grove. But beyond this important work of gathering audiences in that way from time to time, to hear the message of the Gospel, we desire to build up organized congregations, not only for the greater convenience of our people, and for the greater facility of organizing Sunday Schools and other such associations, but also because for the more orderly and distinctive worship of our church, and for the better conservation of the faith, our congregations must have homes of their own, however humble those homes may be. You can go so far in a hall or school house, or a borrowed church building, but you can hardly go further, and this, I think, accounts for our failure in many places to make more decided progress.

I have found after careful investigation, and my finding has been confirmed by actual experiment in several cases, that for about the sum of five hundred dollars, a building can be erected which, though not complete, would yet furnish a home for a small congregation, and would readily lend itself to gradual completion and improvement. I have offered to assist any congregation undertaking such a building to the extent of two hundred dollars. I believe that with such a building as is proposed, that the congregation would be encouraged to push it on to completion; and in a few years' time, by spending perhaps five hundred dollars additional, they would have a sightly and comfortable and well equipped chapel. And I am afraid that without some such start, that the mere anticipation of what they may be able to do in the distant future, while, in the meantime, they are worshipping in borrowed churches, and in halls and school houses, will not avail to build them up, and perhaps not even to stop complete disintegration. I believe that there is immediate need of twelve or fifteen such churches to stop the disintegration spoken of, none of these at new points, but all where we have been working for some years, and are now working, but at the great disadvantage that we have no church home of our own, and so are making comparatively little progress.

I know that there is great disinclination to build an inexpensive church, but it is a question whether the loss of members and of prestige during years of inaction can ever be made up. A half loaf is better than none, and with care and judgment, such a building can be put up which will not only be decent, but comfortable and sightly,—a building which, if the congregation grows, can be utilized for a Sunday school room, when a better church can be erected. This is an effort, not so much to extend the church as to hold securely what we already have. And, of course, we understand that every such church organization with a building of their own, is in condition to enter into such combination with others that services may be secured, where otherwise they would be impossible.

PROPOSED AMENDMENTS TO THE CONSTITUTION AND CANONS.

I do not intend unduly to occupy your time in discussing present day questions, but there are several matters that will be brought up at the approaching General Convention upon which I may properly express an opinion.

THE CANON ON DIVORCE.

As is well known, Canon 38 was brought to its present stringent form after considerable discussion. It differs from the old Canon chiefly in this, that while it allows the marriage of an innocent person divorced on account of adultery, it makes that marriage much more difficult than it has been, in that it provides that before the application for such remarriage, a period of not less than one year shall have elapsed after the granting of such divorce, and that satisfactory evidence touching the facts in the case including a copy of the Court's decree and Record, if practicable, with proof that the defendant was personally served or appeared in the action, be laid before the Ecclesiastical authority, and such Ecclesiastical authority having taken legal advice thereon, shall have declared in writing that in his judgment the case of the applicant conforms to the requirements of this Canon.

It is now sought to revise this Canon so as to forbid the remarriage of a person divorced for any cause, and under any conditions. I am opposed to thus increasing the rigidity of the law, because it seems to me to do so would be to go beyond the express permission of Scripture, and to be wise above what is written. The present Canon seems to me to furnish all the safeguards needed, and I do not believe that the ill-advised remarriage of divorced persons so greatly and justly complained of is, or can be accomplished under its wise and stringent provisions.

THE PREAMBLE TO THE CONSTITUTION.

In the consideration I have given to the proposed Preamble to the Constitution, I have been so far unable to see the necessity or even expediency of it.

It is a serious question whether the statements it contains, which by implication at least sets forth the Fundamentals of the Faith, should against all precedent be put into a Document which is properly considered a purely legislative Enactment, and like other such enactments subject to revision or repeal. The objection has also been made that these statements are in some respects loose, vague and indefinite. Notably for instance in speaking, in the very first line of "This American Church," while in documents and standards it is called the "Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States of America," of course we can understand how the words "American Church" can be used in popular language, but that is very different from inserting them in the Constitution, which being the Law of the Church is "the last place for vague and indefinite statements or words." As has been well said "the very nature of that instrument makes it legal, and its statements and words should have all the certainty and precision of legal language."

If this Preamble means to set forth the Fundamentals of the Faith, it is at least unfortunate that it does not set them forth with the accuracy and precision of the Prayer Book. This it has failed to do in its statements about the orders of the sacred ministry, and the sacraments. The failure to hold on these points, at least, to the accuracy and precision of the Prayer Book might very well lead to trouble and controversy.

We may concede "the worthy object of the Preamble, its stately language and gentle spirit, and yet feel that such statements are out of place in a Constitution which in its form and matter is at the mercy of two consecutive General Conventions.

SUFFRAGAN BISHOPS.

The proposed amendment to the Constitution which allows the election of Suffragan Bishops commends itself to me as meeting a pressing need, or at least as an effort to do so. The idea of Suffragan Bishops has been before the Church for a long time, but has generally met with disfavor. Conditions have however greatly changed since Emancipation, and since the continued inflow of foreigners into this country, in such numbers that they often form large communities, and so continue the use of their own language.

I can readily understand how objections may be urged to this measure as meeting the needs of the work among the colored people and also among the foreigners who have not learned the English language, but the absence of any general agreement as to provision for these cases, seems so far to have the proposed Suffragan Bishops in possession of the field—this plan at least provides some way out of the difficulty and there being no obligation to carry it into operation, it leaves a large discretion with the several Dioceses—if placed upon our Statute books, it will suggest and provide some way of relief, which if it commends itself to those upon whom these questions press, can be followed and if it does not commend itself, can stand unused. In the meantime, we are free to devise and propose any other method of relief that may seem expedient.

In addition to the cases mentioned above there are others where Suffragan Bishops may be found helpful, as they have been so notably in England. In the training of men for more responsible positions as in the case of the present Bishop of London, and the Archbishop of York, the Suffragan Bishopric have abundantly justified itself.

THE PRESIDING BISHOP.

I am opposed to the amendment to the Constitution, which proposes the election of a Presiding Bishop by the General Convention.

The present Constitution and Canons already provide us sufficiently with an administrative head, and there seems to be no need that he should be invested with any wider discretionary powers of direction and control.

The present Presiding Bishop who has the love and confidence of the Church, and who because no change is contemplated during his life, necessarily occupies a high vantage ground for the impartial consideration of the whole question meets the objection that the present plan of securing a Presiding Bishop, (which makes him the Senior Bishop, in the order of Consecration having jurisdiction within the United States) makes it probable that the occupant of the position must be an old and feeble man, by calling attention to the fact that under the present practice, assistance is provided by the election of a chairman of the House of Bishops, who as representative of the House, and as assessor to the Presiding Bishop, can wisely and will help the latter to discharge, or can discharge for him, all the prescribed duties.

The Presiding Bishop goes on in words which deserve our serious consideration as we contemplate a change which would throw such an important election into the arena of the General Convention, he says "I do not dwell upon unwholesome party canvassing, which would not be improbable, and upon unhappy frictions and differences between the two Houses, which would be quite possible, in a Church where it is of the utmost importance that mutual respect, confidence, good will and harmony should pervade both branches of her supreme legislature.

THE LAYMEN'S MISSIONARY MOVEMENT.

It has been my privilege to take part in several of the meetings connected with the Laymen's Missionary movement, notably in Wheeling and Huntington; and it was gratifying to find in each place that our church people were interested and prominent in the meetings. It is somewhat difficult to judge accurately of that which takes place in your time, and in which you yourself may bear some part, but it really seems as if the laymen had in this, inaugurated one of the great movements in the history of the church. Happily conceived, so as to avoid difficulties, which have hindered previous efforts at co-operation, this movement has aimed simply at the inspiration of the churches, and has not, in any way, touched the matter of general administration; and with this result that everybody has been able to throw themselves heart and soul into the movement without compromise of principle, or sacrifice of conviction or surrender of anything valued in faith or practice.

There can be no doubt that under the local pressure at home, which has been great, and under the additional pressure of maintaining our mission work already undertaken in non-Christian lands, that our churches have somewhat lost sight of the great obligation to be continually pressing onward to preach the Gospel in the regions beyond. It is not at all to the credit of the Christian churches that now after 1900 years, about two-thirds of the human race or about 1,000,000,000 out of 1,500,000,000 have never heard the Gospel of our Savior Christ. The distinct effort of the Laymen's Missionary Movement is to fire the enthusiasm of Christian people everywhere, to undertake to carry the good news of God's grace to man through Jesus Christ, to this 1,000,000,000 of our fellow men during this generation.

And a little consideration will show that this is entirely possible. In men it would require a detail of only one in a thousand as a missionary army, whereas, during the war between the states, often one in ten, and sometimes one in five persons took part in the conflict; and of money it would require an average contribution of only one dollar, not from the 500,000,000 of Christendom, but from only the 50,000,000 who may be considered as specially feeling the obligation.

As things go, this Diocese has been considered as bearing an honorable part in the great work of Missions, but I do not think we have anything to be proud of. You must remember that this work of making Christ known to those sitting in darkness and in the shadow of death, is of primary obligation; it is of vital and fundamental importance; it is the great duty the risen Savior laid upon His church, and cannot, by our activity in other directions, be relegated to a secondary place. And yet, what are the facts? About one-fortieth of the money raised by the church goes to this work,—the other thirty-nine-fortieths, has been consumed in caring for ourselves and in supporting Missions in this Christian land. if this is a fair test of the church's effort during the ages, it is no wonder that 1900 years have passed, and the work is not yet done.

In West Virginia we gave last year, by direct and indirect contribution, to this general Mission work of the church $4,916; of this amount one-half, or $2,458, may be considered as given to Foreign Missions, or, as already said, one-fortieth of all the money we raised. I cannot consider this a due proportion to meet so imperative, and pressing an obligation as the evangelization of the world, and especially as after the long delay of 1900 years, the quickened conscience of the church is calling upon her to accomplish the great work in this generation. It is my earnest hope that through the increasing interest of our people, and the more earnest efforts of our officers, clergy and vestries and other leaders, to reach all the individuals in our widely spread constituency, that there will be a great forward movement in West Virginia along the line of Foreign Missions.

In my judgment, perhaps the most important thing connected with this Laymen's Missionary Movement, is the method of personal appeal which it seeks to introduce. This personal appeal is of the very essence of the movement, and unless it be carried out, comparatively little will be accomplished. We need to have a house to house canvass fund, and that renewed from year to year so that every individual shall be appealed to in such a way that the responsibility of supporting the Missions of the church shall be brought home to each and every person, and no one shall be, as is now too frequently the case, lost in the crowd.

To make any decided gain in our contributions to Missions, we need to go back of the diocese and the congregation, and make our appeal directly to the people,—the individuals who compose the congregations. If you will examine and analyze our financial reports, I think it can safely be said that you can hardly fail to be ashamed of what is revealed. It is true that a vast deal of money is raised year by year for church purposes,—last year, in the whole church, $16,560,000; but there are a great many people concerned in raising it, perhaps not much short of 2,000,000 baptized persons all of whom are to be accounted members of the Missionary society; but if we make our average upon the basis of the communicants only—a little less than half this number, say 900,000,—we find that our church people are giving at the rate of about $18.60 for each communicant, for all objects. It is not my purpose here to find fault with this average, but it is my purpose to find fault with the proportion of this that goes for what we call the General Missions of the church at home and abroad. That contribution amounts to an average of just about sixty cents for each communicant, and such an insignificant amount cannot be called a fair average contribution for the communicants of this church to make for the great cause of Domestic and Foreign Missions. It is really a ludicrous, if not positively disgraceful exhibit. West Virginia by giving directly about eight hundred dollars more than her apportionment, i. e. $3,373—just about reached this average of sixty cents for each communicant, and we were supposed to be doing very well. Just think of it. After all our regular and special efforts, not getting beyond an average of sixty cents for each communicant, as our apportionment for General Missions, Domestic and Foreign. I cannot think that this paltry sum fairly represents the conscience of our people as they face the obligation of Missions. The simple explanation of their failure is, in my judgment, that they have not as a whole been yet brought face to face with the duty and privilege. We have been trusting I might say almost entirely, to appeals from the chancel, followed by offerings in the church, and as long as we confine ourselves to this method, the result will not vary greatly from that attained in the past. We need to break away from this traditional method, and supplement it by personal appeals to all our people,—appeals made under the sanction of the Rector, preferably by those men and women among our communicants whose hearts God has touched with more than common sense of the church's responsibility to carry out the Great Commission. If such a small committee—say of two or three—were to wait upon every one of our communicants, to say nothing of the greater number of baptized persons and adherents who are not communicants, and leaving other contributions to stand as they are, were to urge everybody to give a minimum of one dollar during the year for General Missions, such a sum, although one-half or one-third of those approached could not attain even to this minimum, yet such a sum supplemented by the contributions many could make of twice, five, ten, a hundred, five hundred times more, would give a mighty impulse to our mission work and be somewhat more worthy the dignity of the great cause. The idea is not Utopian—it is perfectly reasonable; it can easily be done if the clergy will only put their hands to the work. I invite them to undertake it; no longer to depend simply on those of their people who happen to be in church on a special occasion, or are thoughtful enough to send their contributions when they themselves are absent, but by means of a committee of men and women, as suggested, to reach all their people, systematically and regularly, and thus roll away the reproach that the present condition of things fastens upon our church. We cannot always secure the cordial co-operation of our people, I am aware of that, but we can at least demand attention, and give information, and this is just the thing which, however important and comparatively easy, we often do not now do, and from this failure comes a grievous loss, not only in money, but in Christian education, and in a reasonable interest and activity in Christian work. I do not believe that a speaker at the Laymen's Missionary Convention in Chicago, went too far when criticising the clergy for failing to take the lead in this matter, he said, "There is too much timid asking on the part of the ministers, and not enough leading or commanding. They have too little confidence in the desire of their congregations to do good, and such doubt is contagious. One of the great secrets of handling men, and moving them to greater efforts, is to command and lead, rather than simply ask them if they wont." These are words from the layman's point of view, and I believe the speaker was right; and what I ask now, whether this matter be discussed here in the council or not, whether any resolutions be passed or not,—is, that we all go home and at once put this reasonable and feasible plan into immediate operation, so that before the summer is over, every man, woman and child in this diocese, of approachable age and condition, have the personal responsibility brought home to them of doing something definite for the General Missions of the church, with system and regularity. For those so doing already, we will thank God; for those who are neglecting this duty and privilege, we will pray that the good Lord would so enlighten their minds and touch their hearts that they might henceforth render a grateful service along this line of duty. But whether they will bear or forbear, we will have done our duty, and can leave the result with the Master and Lord of us all.

It is not so much the diocese or congregation we should seek to touch, as the individual. Too many stand back and rest in what others have done. A man has been known to mention with pride a large offering for Foreign Missions, when four-fifths of it was given by one person, and he himself gave practically nothing. Congregations are guilty of the same inconsistency when they take pride in what the diocese or general church does while meantime, they themselves do nothing, or comparatively little. And I would say to every minister, if you have paid your apportionment, it is well; if you have paid double the amount it is better; but it is not well if even one person under your charge is allowed to rest unchallenged behind what others have done. We may have to stand between our congregations and many appeals, but not between them and this appeal. The elan of a regiment is said to reside in a comparatively few men, meantime, the constant effort is to bring up the many to the spirit and efficiency of the few. So there ought to be a persistent effort to bring up the mass of our people to the spirit and efficiency of the few, who now practically carry on the work. This difficult and often discouraging duty we owe to the people themselves for the development of their Christian life, if not the salvation of their souls. We owe it to the faithful few that they be not weighted down by burdens others ought to help them to bear, and we owe it to the dear Lord Himself, who has put them all under our care, and looks for fruit from this, His favored vineyard.

In urging this plan upon the diocese, I do not forget that our congregations are generally small, and I suppose I might say from a financial point of view, generally feeble. We have only thirteen congregations with over one hundred communicants each, and fifty five with less than fifty; but I think it a mistake to suppose that those small congregations have less ability to keep up to the average contribution for Missions than the larger churches. They have not the same proportionate expenses, and oftentimes, for various other reasons, they have greater relative ability, and, as a matter of fact, the individuals who make up the small bands of five, ten, or twenty communicants, have the same personal obligation as if they belonged to a church with five hundred members.

Membership in the kingdom by baptism comes first; dioceses and parishes and missions are secondary, because they are of human arrangement; we might change them all to-morrow, but we cannot change the obligations of our baptismal membership in the Kingdom. And if we find that these human arrangements of dioceses and parishes and Missions interfere with the primary obligations resulting from membership in the kingdom, we have good reason to revise and correct what can hardly be after the mind of the Master, if it largely contravenes his last command.

I believe that if the clergy will, not in a perfunctory, half-hearted kind of a way, but loyally, heartily and with energy throw themselves into some such plan as this, and push it vigorously, and persistently, and judiciously to completion, without regarding the difficulties and objections that will inevitably arise, that, not only will the Missions of the church be revived, but that all local activities will be stimulated and strengthened, and that we shall find a fundamental military maxim has its application in the life of the church,—that “the best way to maintain and defend is to attack.” Let the church be more aggressive, and she will be in every way stronger to maintain ground already gained.

The plan proposed of personal appeal is one worked out by the business men of the country; their practical experience makes their advice valuable, and they are the people from whom the money for Missions is to come. The clergy will make a mistake if in opposition to this counsel, or in neglect of it, they continue to confine themselves to the traditional appeal from the chancel, and the offerings of those who come out on special occasions, or, it may be, send in their contributions. Our laymen, who make the great body of the church, who have large experience in such matters, and from whom the money for aggressive work must be raised, have spoken—let us not simply follow their counsel, but seek ourselves to lead in the great campaign.

In concluding my remarks upon this subject let me say that we would do well to consider how the Great Missionary Congress at Chicago, which was the culmination of the meetings of the Laymen's Missionary movement, held during this last winter and Spring in seventy-five cities throughout the country, has made to us all, suggestions which we cannot reasonably disregard. We have in this Diocese long since gotten beyond what some one calls “the spasmodic once-a-year appeal for Foreign Missions,” but considering as well founded the statement that only one out of every four women, and only one out of every eight men of the average church have given any amount to foreign missions, it is evident that we need to bestir ourselves.

In the schedule of my calendar for 1910 fourteen offerings are distinctly set aside for missionary work, outside of West Virginia, and sixteen other offerings are marked as discretionary, which means that they may be applied to such missionary work, when it is deemed expedient to do so, but so great is the pressure to follow the program calling for the evangelization of world in this generation, that it is a serious question whether we should not heed the call for a weekly offering, if not for Foreign Missions distinctively, yet for Missionary work outside our own limits. Whether this can be accomplished by introducing the duplex envelope is for the clergy and congregations to decide, but whatever method be adopted, it is as I have already said, of the very essence of this great forward movement that every member of the Church be reached, and for some reason there seems to be a reluctance both on the part of ministers and people to embark upon a campaign that is absolutely essential to reach the entire membership of the church.

The great Missionary Congress has declared that to accomplish the desired result there is needed the adoption by every church, of regular and thorough methods of Missionary education and finance, culminating once each year in an organized personal canvass of each congregation, with the earnest purpose of securing the systematic and proportionate contribution of every member, and the Congress recommends for universal adoption the plan of a missionary offering every week in order that the vast world enterprise may be kept constantly in the minds and prayers of all Christians, and that funds for the work may be adequately and steadily available; and they further recommend that there be formed in each individual church a strong missionary committee charged with the responsibility of promoting missionary intelligence, intercession and Contributions.

It is interesting to know that the several thousand Churchmen throughout the country who have shared the stimulus of the national campaign of the Laymen's Missionary movement, have expressed their intention of increasing the missionary offerings of their various congregations from $333,466 given during the last fiscal year to $640,662 for the coming year. What part are we in West Virginia to have in this increase?

A CALL TO PRAYER.

But after all that can be said about the importance of better administration, and more systematic and liberal giving to support our missions, and extend the Kingdom, I cannot but think that we are in constant danger of depending too much upon administration and organization. It is an age of great activity and of organized efforts in every department of life. We have business methods in the church, and we welcome them there; we ought to have them, for we are not doing our utmost to maintain and extend the Kingdom of God, unless we are utilizing our business experience, and show ourselves as alert in work for the church as we are in advancing our own interests. But the thought arises: Do we, in the midst of all our activity, remember what is the true source of power, and continually pray the Lord of the Harvest to send forth laborers into His Harvest, and so to bless those who are already at work,—that all men everywhere may seek after Him and find Him? It is very easy to say that we know that success in bringing men to God is not by might, nor by power, but by the spirit of the Lord, and then practically to forget it. If we lived under the habitual influence of this great truth, would not prayer for the maintenance and extension of Christ's Kingdom enter more into our life, and be a greater part of the work we do for Him? An effort has been made by our Mission Board to secure midday prayer for Missions, by putting forth such forms of prayer as are at once helpful and suggestive. Whatever has been our practise in the past, can we not now make a new departure in our work, by devoting a few minutes each day to these prayers, and so put ourselves in such waiting attitude, that God may the more enlarge our hearts and kindle our zeal, and cause us, and all our co-workers, to labor with more ready zeal for the coming of the Kingdom.

It has been well said that the duty and privilege of all who earnestly desire that Kingdom may come, is transparently clear. Besides and beyond all other forms of activity, however useful and helpful they may be, in spreading information, the supplying of men and money, the appeal for a higher consecration of person and property, one supreme need confronts us—the demand for united, intelligent, believing prayer. Strange, indeed, that the church of God should need any further incentive to united supplication. Here is at once the easiest and the hardest way to success; easiest, because it is by absolute dependence upon God, content to have His strength perfected in our weakness; and for that very reason hardest, because there is nothing to which we are so prone, as to trust in ourselves, and nothing to which we are so averse as to hang in absolute helplessness upon God's power and grace. We like to act, but we do not like to ask; it humors our pride to do something that looks big, but it is only when pride bows in humility, that in any work for God the highest achievement is possible. Let us never forget this, that the work of Missions is preeminently our Father's business. It must be transacted under our Father's constant guidance, by His help, His strength, and so for His glory. And nothing will bring us and help us in the right attitude like the habit of believing prayer, which is the one sure sign that we are "Workers together with God."

On motion, the late Joseph D. DuBois of Wheeling and Joseph Sands of Fairmont were memorialized by a page in the journal of 1910.

On motion of the Rev. Mr. Brittingham, that portion of the Bishops address referring to the Laymens Missionary movement, was ordered to be printed for distribution through the diocese and read by the ministers to their congregations.

The Council adjourned.

Thursday, June 2nd. 11:30 A. M.

After morning prayer and sermon by the Rev. James D. Gibson. The Bishop called the Council to order. Minutes of the last day read and approved.

The Standing Committee of the Diocese was elected, (the ballot being cast by the Secretary,) as follows:

The Rev. G. A. Gibbons.	Mr. Isaac H. Strider.
The Rev. J. S. Douglas.	Mr. Frank Beckwith.
The Rev. A. J. Willis.	Mr. C. A. Miller.

The following Committee on Constitution and Canons was elected:

Rev. J. S. Gibson.	Mr. S. W. Washington.
Rev. S. S. Moore, D. D.	Mr. W. S. Laidley.
Rev. R. D. Roller, D. D.

Mr. R. M. Browne presented his report of the Episcopate Fund which was referred to the Committee on Episcopate and Permanent Fund. (For report see Appendix A).

The ballot was then taken for clerical and lay deputies to the General Convention to meet in Cincinnati Oct. 5th. 1910.

The Bishop appointed the Rev. Jas. D. Gibson and Mr. A. B. C. Bray tellers.

The following nominations were made:

Of the Clergy.	Of the Laity.
Rev. J. S. Alfriend.	Mr. C. A. Miller.
Rev. J. S. Gibson.	Dr. G. A. Aschman.
Rev. J. S. Douglas.	Mr. S. Bruce Hall.

Rev. R. D. Roller, D. D.	Mr. C. L. Thompson.
	Mr. J. T. Waters.
	Mr. S. W. Washington.

The tellers retired. Pending the count of the ballot the Rev. Jno. S. Douglas presented the following communication from the Secretary of the Third Missionary Department.

Philadelphia, Pa., 4/25/10.

REV. AND DEAR SIR:—

At the Missionary Council in Washington, the following Article of the Constitution was adopted:

ARTICLE VIII.

The authorized expenses of the Third Department, including the printing and distribution of the Journal of Proceedings of its Council, shall be paid by the Treasurer; and each year of the session of the Council, if the needs of the Treasury for that purpose require it, he shall call upon the Treasurer of each Diocese within the Department to pay him an equal amount, to meet such expenses; the amount of such call, however, not to exceed the sum of Twenty-five ($25.00) in any one such year.

On motion the following resolution was adopted:

RESOLVED: That the Diocese composing this Missionary Department be requested to ratify this action.

Will you kindly see that this action is ratified at your coming Convention?

Yours very truly,

THOS. J. GARLAND,
Department Secretary.

It was moved that the Council appropriate not to exceed twenty five dollars for expenses of the Missionary Council of the 3rd. District, when called for by the Treasurer of said Council and so ratify the action of the Missionary Council at Washington. Adopted.

The Rev. J. S. Douglas read a communication from the Rev. Mr. McClure of the Genl. Clergy Relief Fund.

The Rev. Dr. Moore moved that that portion of the letter of Mr. C. L. Thompson to the Rev. Mr. Gibson which was read by him to the Council be printed in the Journal and that the Council express its sympathy with the writer in his illness, and its appreciation of his desire thus to memorialize his father and mother.

Copy of the letter as referred to above:

I wish to give $500.00 to the fund for Aged and Disabled Clergy as a memorial of my father and mother, Major Benjamin S. Thompson and Elizabeth Lewis, his wife.

CAMERON L. THOMPSON.

The Council took a recess.

Thursday, 2:30 P. M.

The Rev. W. P. Chrisman was declared elected.

Mr. R. M. Browne presented the following which was adopted:

Inasmuch as the work of the Sunday school is of paramount importance in the life of the Church, and whereas the present status of the Sunday school in this Diocese is such as to demand of us and all belonging to the Church in West Virginia renewed interest and every effort which will count in the forward movement of the Church in the future, be it

Resolved, That this Council urgently request that the several convocations give this matter of Sunday school work special consideration, and recommend the adoption of a plan looking to the formation of Sunday school institutes similar to that now in existence in the Ohio Valley, or some other definite scheme which will result in a united Diocesan effort for the benefit of the training of the children of our parishes.

The Rev Mr. Dandridge offered the following which was adopted:

That the thanks of the Council be extended to Rev. Mr. Chrisman for the preparation of the Sunday school map of West Virginia.

Resolved, Further that this map be photographed and printed (on a folding double page) in the Journal of the Council and in the Church News.

The Rev. Mr. Lewis reported for the Parochial Reports Committee. The appended resolutions were adopted:

Resolved, That future reports of the vital statistics of the Sunday school show the following items: Number of Schools, Officers and Teachers, Pupils Enrolled. Carried.

Resolved, That the printed heading, Grand Total as given in the Parochial Report Committee be changed and printed in this Journal—All money raised by the congregation for current expenses and contributions. Carried.

Alterations in the form of Parochial Reports were referred to the committee on Parochial Reports and Mr. R. W. Browne was added to the committee.

Bishop Gravatt presented the following report, which was adopted:

TO THE THIRTY-SECOND ANNUAL COUNCIL OF THE DIOCESE OF WEST VIRGINIA.

Your special committee appointed by the President, under authority of a resolution, passed and adopted by the Thirty-Second Annual Council,—“with directions to prepare and submit to the next council a proposed amendment of the law of this State enlarging the right of religious denominations to acquire and hold property for such purposes as may be deemed proper, necessary or expedient, other than the purposes now specified by the law”—respectfully submit the following:

A BILL TO AMEND AND RE-ENACT SECTION 1 OF CHAPTER 57 OF THE CODE OF WEST VIRGINIA:

Be it enacted by the Legislature of West Virginia:

That section 1 of chapter 57 of the Code of West Virginia be and the same is hereby amended and re-enacted so as to read as follows:

1. Every conveyance, devise or dedication which has been made since the first day of January, one thousand seven hundred and seventy-seven, and every conveyance of land which shall hereafter be made for the use or benefit of any church, religious sect, society, congregation or denomination, as a place of public worship, or as a burial place, or a residence for a minister, or as a place for institutional work, shall be valid, and shall be construed to give the local society or congregation of such church to whom it was so conveyed, devised or dedicated, the control thereof, except as herein provided; and the land shall be held for such purpose and no other. Any conveyance of property for the use of two or more contiguous congregations, shall be construed to give such contiguous congregations the equitable title to such property: Provided however, that no lot of ground used for church purposes shall be taken from the members of the church that purchased the same, or for whose use or benefit it was conveyed, devised or dedicated.

Respectfully submitted,

W. L. GRAVATT,
S. SCOLLAY MOORE,
B. M. AMBLER,
LEANORD W. S. STRYKER,
JAMES W. EWING,

Special Committee.

May 31st, 1910.

The Rev. Mr. Stryker offered the following:

Resolved, That a copy of the above Bill, together with such explanatory information as may be deemed necessary, be sent to every minister in the state, inviting them to bring this matter to the notice of their people, and to use their influence to secure the enactment of this proposed amendment of the present law at the next meeting of the Legislature of this state, and that the secretary of the Council be instructed to call the attention of other religious bodies in the state and ask their co-operation.

The Rev. Dr. Moore on behalf of the Trustees of the Permanent Fund presented their report. (For Report see Appendix A.)

The Council adjourned.

Friday, June 3rd, 11.00 A. M.

The Council met, the Bishop in the chair, invocation by the Bishop. The minutes of yesterday were read and approved. The Rev. Dr. Roller having arrived took his post of duty as Secretary.

The Rev. Mr. Stryker moved to expunge from the minutes all the details of the election of Deputies to the General Convention, except the names of those elected. Lost.

At his request, a motion was carried, omitting his name.

The Rev. John S. Gibson made the following report, the recommendation was adopted.

To the Thirty-third Annual Council of the Diocese of West Virginia:

The Committee to prepare a blank form, record of whose appointment is to be found on page 34 of the Journal of 1909, respectfully presents this report:—

Your committee prepared the form and it was sent to the parishes and missions to be filled out for use in printing the Journal of 1910.

We recommend that the form, condensed in space, be printed in the Journal. A copy of the form is attached to this report.

We recommend the adoption of the following:

Resolved, That the secretary is instructed to print in the Journal of 1910, and until other order is made, under the heading: "Parishes, Missions, their Officials &c." followed by such explanatory notes as may be necessary—THE DATA IN THIS FORM, in lieu of the usual printing of the Parochial Reports; and that the vital and financial statistics of the Churches as given in the Parochial Reports to the Bishop be printed in a table, or tables similar to that in the Journal of 1909.

Respectfully submitted,

JNO S. GIBSON,
ARTHUR M. LEWIS,
Committee.

2:30 P. M.

The Committee on Episcopal and Permanent Fund made this report. The recommendation was adopted.

The Committee on Episcopal and Permanent Fund begs leave to report:

We have examined the report of the Diocesan Treasurer, and verified the same by reference to the vouchers and find it to be correct.

This report deals with the following:

Widows and Orphans and Disabled Clergy Fund; Religious and Theological Education Fund; Diocesan Mission Fund.

The Widows and Orphans and Disabled Celrgy Fund.

The total receipts are $1,322.32. Of this amount, $405.00 is income from investments. The total payments during the year were $980.00. The balance now in the fund is $9,577.61. The receipts for the year just closed fell below those in the last report.

The Religious and Theological Education Fund.

The total receipts are $213.28, a falling off of about $15.00 from last year. Inasmuch as the receipts for this fund are falling off year by year, your committee recommends that one of the members of the Education Committee of this Council be appointed by the Bishop as secretary of said committee to notify the various parishes some time before this offering is taken, and to give the subject such other publicity as is deemed expedient.

The Diocesan Mission Fund.

In the printed report we find the following sums received on the assessment:

From Parishes	$3,026.58
From Sunday schools	676.52

Total paid on the assessment	$3,703.10
Received from the Bishop on the Missionary League Account ..	815.50
From the Woman's Auxiliary	421.50

Total receipts	$4,940.10
----------------------	------------

Payment during year	3,897.20
	<hr/>
Balance on hand from last year	$1,042.90
Balance on hand this report	$1,852.26

We have examined all these items and find them to be correct.

The Episcopal and Contingent Fund.

We have verified the items in this account. Your committee regret to find 25 places which have made no contribution, these 25 places had an assessment aggregating $276.00. If this additional amount had been paid, it would have more than offset the loss in the small working balance in hand, which is less than last year. We recommend that the Trustee have the various parishes notified of the amount unpaid on their assessment thirty days before the books be closed, and that a suitable amount be allowed for this Expense.

The Permanent Fund.

On examination of this fund we find that the amount received from the various parishes and missions is $119.37 a gratifying increase of $0.36 per parish over last year.

Again we recommend that notices be sent to the delinquent parishes and missions 30 days before the books are closed and a necessary allowance be made for this expense.

Your committee recommends that the usual allowance of $10.00 for the extra work imposed upon the sexton of Christ Church, Fairmont, be made from the Contingent Fund.

J. BRITTINGHAM,
A. J. WILLIS,
W. D. SELL,
E. H. MACDOWDE.

The Rev. Mr. Thomas offered the following resolution which was adopted.

In view of the approaching end of this Council and the amount of more important matters yet to be considered by the same, be it

Resolved, That the revision of the Parochial Reports blank be submitted to a committee consisting of Rev. A. M. Lewis, Rev. R. D. Roller, and W. D. Sell who with the advice and approval of the Bishop shall have power to make the necessary changes.

The Rev. Mr. Alfriend made this report for the Committee on the state of the Church:

The Committee on the State of the Church submit the following Report: The condition of the work throughout the diocese shows substantial growth. Under the leadership of the bishops, the clergy and laity are praying and planning and working and giving to strengthen Stakes and enlarge the borders of the Church in the Parish, diocese and the mission fields of the world. It is to be noted, with gratitude to God, that the men, women and children of the diocese, are working with one heart and purpose in loyalty and devotion to the common cause. Your Committee desires to record their appreciation of the faithful and intelligent work shown in the reports of the treasurers of the different funds of the diocese; and also in the parochial reports. There are several specific matters your Committee desires to bring to the attention of the Council:

I. The Report of the Committee on Parochial Reports shows a falling off in the number of communicants and in the amounts contributed for current expenses and other objects in the parish. The former is doubtless due mostly to removals of communicants and revision of communicant lists; the second, is due, in opinion of Committee, chiefly, to causes which will also account for the fact of the standstill in the number of confirmed persons, namely: vacancies. During the past year an unusual number of places have been vacant; e. g. (just to take one field) between Greenbrier and Charleston there are 8 churches, 14 other preaching places, and 353 communicants—and not one minister on the ground.

The Bishops are making every effort to meet this need by securing clergymen from outside the diocese. But, as was forcefully said by the Bishop Coadjutor in his address, the only permanent cure is for the Church in West Virginia to call upon her own sons to give their lives to this branch of Christian service. Therefore your Committee would beg the Council to urge upon all clergy, Sunday school teachers and parents to be more diligent in presenting the claims of the ministry to the boys and young men—not limiting this appeal to those in school and college. We must not speak timidly in this matter.

Furthermore, while your Committee fully recognizes the financial inability of the Church to deal with this question at this time, yet it desires to suggest and urge upon especially the laymen of the Church the absolute necessity of meeting the demands for more adequate ministerial supply by educating men for the ministry by sending substantial assistance to prospective ministerial students in school and college.

While there is a falling off in amounts raised for current expenses and contributions within the parish we rejoice that there is an increase in contributions to diocesan and general objects.

This Church must pray and labor, that increase in gifts of money may be accompanied by greater increase in gifts of life—men and women for active work of the Church.

II. We rejoice in the increased interest in the Sunday schools. And though the number of schools has not increased, we believe that the work is more systematic, enthusiastic and efficient; and by using the means of growth within our reach, this branch of work may be farther strengthened and enlarged.

III. In the address of the Bishop which has been referred to this Committee our Bishop alludes to three matters of great importance which will come before the General Convention in October next.

1. The question of Suffragan Bishops.
2. The Revision of the present Canon on Divorce.
3. The Preamble to the Constitution.

These matters should be discussed by this Council in order that the delegates to the General Convention may know the sense of the diocese they represent. Your Committee refrains from any recommendations on these subjects—hoping and urging that the Council will go fully into a discussion of these matters.

JNO. S. ALFRIEND,
A. J. WILLIS,
E. P. DANDRIDGE,
S. BRUCE HALL,
GEO. O. BAXTER.

The Rev. Dr. Moore called for the report of the committee on amendment to Art 1 of the Constitution, relating to the election of a presiding Bishop of the Church, which was postponed until the Council. It was taken up, considered and lost.

Mr. R. L. Boyd presented the report of the Assessment Committee, which was recommitted for further revision.

The report of the Committee, to-wit: That the proposed preamble to the Constitution should not be adopted, was adopted by the council.

The report as to alteration of the title page of the Book of Common Prayer in foreign languages was laid on the table.

The Rev. G. A. Gibbons presented the following report of the Standing Committee of the Diocese.

The Standing Committee of the Diocese of West Virginia makes this annual report for the year ending June 1st, 1910.

June 22, 1909. The Standing Committee met in Martinsburg and organized by electing a president and secretary. The committee then consented to the Ordination and Consecration of the Rev. Arthur Seldon

Lloyd, D. D., as Bishop Coadjutor of the Diocese of Virginia. At the same time the Committee consented to the Ordination and Consecration of the Rev. John Gardner Murray as Bishop Coadjutor of the Diocese of Maryland.

September 7th, 1909. The Committee recommended Mr. Josiah Tidball Carter as a candidate for Holy Orders.

April 19th, 1910. The Standing Committee recommended Mr. Edgar William Halleck to be ordered Deacon.

June 2nd, 1910. The Standing Committee at a called meeting in Fairmont, W. Va. recommended the Rev. W. B. McKinley, Deacon, for Ordination to the Priesthood.

G. A. GIBBONS, President.

JOHN S. DOUGLAS,

A. J. WILLIS,

C. A. Miller, Secretary.

The Rev. A. M. Lewis, moved that 5000 copies of the map to be printed in the Journal by the Secretary, be printed for distribution in the Diocese. Adopted.

Mr. R. L. Boyd submitted the report of the committee on assessments. (See appendix)

The Rev. John S. Gibson invited the Council to meet in Huntington next year. The invitation was accepted.

The Rev. Dr. Wilkins upon invitation addressed the council on the General Clergy Pension Fund.

The Rev. Dr. Roller reported that the plan for this Diocese was, to distribute literature on this subject to every family in the diocese, have the clergy bring the matter before their people from the pulpit, and then make with the help of the laity a personal canvass for cash and subscriptions.

The following resolution was then adopted:

Resolved, That the second Sunday in November, (13th) or the one nearest thereto, be given by the clergy to the subject of the General Clergy Pension Fund of $5,000.000 and that as far as possible, an exchange of pulpits be made for this purpose. Adopted.

The Rev. Dr. Moore made this report of Diocesan Missionary Committee:

The Committee on Diocesan Missions begs leave to submit the following report of its work.

The number of men directly aided by your Society during the year has been twenty-one. In addition certain sums have been placed in the hands of the Bishop Coadjutor and have been used by him for the supply of vacancies in the field by the services of students in the Theological Seminary and others.

Total receipts for the year have been $4,940.10. We note a gratifying increase in the contribution from the Sunday schools, to which attention has been already called during this session in the report of the Sunday School Committee.

Contributions to this fund are in excess of those of the previous year by about $325.00, which may be said to indicate an encouraging interest in our work and a hopeful spirit on the part of our people.

Expenditures for the work have been $3,711.90 and for current expenses of administration $185.30.

We enter the new year with a balance of $1,252.26 in the treasury. Much of this will be needed to meet the stipends due on the first day of July next.

The balance, which appears large, is due to the fact that so many vacancies have existed in the missionary field.

Your Committee is of opinion that contributions from the field of any missionary, in whatever form they are made, should be credited upon the salary of the worker.

Your Committee deprecates the many vacancies that have existed and do still exist in our ranks, but feels that it can add nothing to what has been said upon this subject by our Bishop and Bishop Coadjutor and by the Committee upon the State of the Church.

We submit with this report a statement of the expense of publication of the Church News, presented by Miss Brady, one of the editors, as follows:

The Rev. Mr. Dandridge presented the following preamble and resolution:

By the Council of the Diocese of West Virginia in 1902, Greenbrier Parish was made coterminous with Greenbrier county, with this exception: "that St. Thomas' Church, White Sulphur Springs shall have the status of a private chapel, under the direct control of the Bishop." Whereas, the affairs of the said St. Thomas' Church are and for the year last past have been administered by a local vestry, under the direction of the Rector of Greenbrier Parish;

Therefore be it Resolved that said St. Thomas' Church be and hereby is made a part of Greenbrier Parish.

On motion of the Rev. Jno. S. Gibson, St. Thomas' Church was made a part of Greenbrier Parish.

The Rev. Mr. Dandridge presented the following which was adopted:

WHEREAS, Every man entering the Sacred Ministry thereby consecrates his whole time and effort to the specific service of the Catholic Church; and

WHEREAS, Those who, under God, occupy the office of Chief Shepherds in this Diocese must know the varied needs and opportunities of the Diocese as a whole better than those just entering upon the work; therefore be it

Resolved, That it is the judgment and recommendation of this Council of the Diocese of West Virginia that no clergyman of this Diocese should change his field of work until the completion of the first year of his priesthood, without the advice and consent of the Ecclesiastical authority.

Resolved further, That in the next edition of the Constitution and Canons of the Church in the Diocese of West Virginia, which shall be printed; this recommendation shall be printed on a separate page immediately after the Canons.

The Rev. Dr. Moore offered the following which was laid on the table:

The Secretary is directed in printing the report of the Assessment Committee to insert against the name of each place assessed the name of the Rector or Missionary who has charge of the particular point.

The Rev. Mr. Willes offered the following resolution which was unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That the hearty thanks of this Council be extended to the Rector, Vestry, Choir and members of the congregation of this Parish for their splendid hospitality during this session of the Council.

It was ordered that the Secretary print 600 copies of the Journal.

It was ordered that 300 extra pages of the new rules be printed for distribution.

The Rev. Dr. Moore moved that the memorial of the North West Convocation as to the change in the time of meeting of the Council be continued until next year. Adopted.

On motion, after reading the minutes and suitable devotions by the Bishop, the Council adjourned sine die.

GEO. W. PETERKIN, President.

ROBT. DOUGLAS ROLLER, Secretary.

JOSEPH DORSEY DUBOIS.

BORN ON GOOD FRIDAY, APRIL 13, 1827.

Attended Grove Academy, Steubenville, O., and Hagerstown Academy, Carroll Co., O., 1839, 1843-5. Studied law, and admitted to the bar at Cadiz, 1848. Engaged in the shipping business on the Mississippi and Ohio rivers, 1849-1864. Prominent in the Iron and Railroad business 1864-1899. Retired from active business in 1899.

Thus briefly are summed up the various activities and interests of a long and useful life. But, greater than these, were his faithfulness and affection displayed in the work of the Church. Since 1872 he was vestryman of St. Matthew's Church, Wheeling, and for 21 years, until his death, he served and honored his parish as Senior Warden. He also represented the Wheeling parish in the Diocesan Council a number of times, and was a Deputy to the General Convention from West Virginia.

In all these capacities, as well as in quiet and unofficial ways, he manifested a love and loyalty for the Church, a devotion to the Christian religion, and a gentleness in all things. He was loved and honored for these fine qualities of his manhood, and his venerable face was a benediction to all who saw him in the House of God, where his presence was always noted to the last. He died on Monday, August 9, 1909, in peace, and has left the city and parish he loved a noble example of upright Christian manhood.

JOSEPH EVANS SANDS.

BORN SEPTEMBER 19, 1835, NEAR ANNAPOLIS, MD.

Educated at St. John's College, Annapolis. Upon entering the business world he at once manifested marked ability, and, in 1862, became cashier of the Fairmont Bank, from which time the institution moved into the front rank with other banks in the state. In the growth of Fairmont, his strong influence and leadership were felt in municipal and educational affairs, and he was one of the organizers of the great Monongah Coal and Coke Company, and prominent in railroad and other important matters closely identified with the development of Fairmont and the region about it.

As a Christian man, he took a foremost place. He was confirmed in 1854, and for 55 years was a consistent communicant of the Church. For many years he was Senior Warden of Christ Church, Fairmont, and for more than a quarter of a century was superintendent of the Sunday-school. He took an active part in the organization of the Diocese of West Virginia, and represented his parish in the Dicesan Council a number of times. Strong and true, he stood for the "faith once delivered," and this influence is seen in his own parish and church. Prominent in Masonic and other like institutions, his death is mourned by a large circle of people, as well as by the Church at Fairmont.

His death occurred on Nov. 19, 1909, after a lingering illness. The funeral at the church he loved brought together a large congregation who rendered this last tribute of love and respect to one who stood for all that was clean and good, and whose ideals were of the highest and noblest.

THIRTY-FOURTH ANNUAL COUNCIL OF THE PROTESTANT EPISCOPAL CHURCH IN THE DIOCESE OF WEST VIRGINIA.

ST. MATTHEWS CHURCH, WHEELING, W. VA.
June 7, 1911.

The thirty-fourth annual Council of the Diocese met this day at 10 A. M.

The ante-communion service was said by the Rector, the Rev. Leonard W. S. Stryker.

The sermon was delivered by the Rev. Edmund Pendleton Dandridge, Rector of Greenbrier Parish from the text Hebs. 1-1, 2.

The Rt. Rev. W. L. Gravatt D. D., Bishop Coadjutor administered the Holy Communion assisted by the Rector of the Parish. The service was concluded with prayers and the benediction by the Bishop of the Diocese.

2:30 P. M.

The Council met. The Bishop of the Diocese in the chair. Prayer by Bishop.

Upon the call of the roll, a quorum of both orders was found to be present, and the Bishop declared the Council to be duly organized for the transaction of business.

The Rev. Mr. Stryker offered the following which was adopted by a rising vote:

Resolved that the Secretary send a telegram at once to the Rev. Jacob Brittingham expressing our love for and constant thought of him, and assuring him of our prayers and of the earnest hope of his speedy recovery.

The Rev. G. A. Gibbons presented the following papers relating to the organization of Hampshire Parish and asked reference to the committee on new parishes.

ROMNEY, W. VA., April 17, 1911.

To the Council of the Protestant Episcopal Church, Diocese of West Virginia:

We, the undersigned members, communicants and friends of St. Stephens Church, Romney, West Va., having duly and Canonically on Easter Monday, 1911 organized a Parish to be known as Hampshire Parish, the bounds of which are coterminous with the boundary lines of the County of Hampshire in the State of West Va., and having Canonically elected a Vestry of said Parish, and having duly notified the Bishop of the Diocese of our action and organization, and having a list of bona fide communicants of over fifty, who, together with other friends, have promised for the ensuing year among ourselves, the sum of $300.00 towards the support of our Rector, and hereby declaring our firm belief and acceptance of the doctrine, discipline and worship of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States, and the Constitution and Canons of the Diocese of W. Va., do by this writing respectfully petition the Council of W. Va. Diocese, at its annual meeting June 7th, 1911, to receive said Parish into Union with the Council of W. Va.

Bishop's House

PARKERSBURG, W. VA., April 19, 1911.

This is to certify to the Council of the Protestant Episcopal Church in West Va., that I have received Canonical notice of the organization of Hampshire Parish, with bounds coterminous with the boundary lines of the County of Hampshire, and that I hereby heartily approve of the organization of this Parish.

GEO. W. PETERKIN,

Bishop of West Virginia.

The Bishop then read his annual address to the Council as follows:

I greet the members of the thirty-fourth annual Council, coming from all parts of our widely extended territory: Grace, Mercy, and Peace from God our Father and Jesus Christ our Lord be with you. On account of circumstances over which we had no control, it was deemed inexpedient to adhere to the regular order of meeting, and, therefore, acting under provisions of Article II of the Constitution I have called this Council to meet in Wheeling instead of in Huntington which was next on our list.

The Council is under obligation to Rectors in this city, and to their people for the very cordial way in which they have welcomed our coming among them. We shall hope that our meeting here will be not only for our pleasure and profit, but that we will leave a blessing behind us.

BISHOP PETERKIN'S DIARY

JUNE, 1910.

Wednesday, 1—Sunday, 5—The thirty-third Annual Council in Christ Church, Fairmont. On the first day I celebrated the Holy Communion, and in the afternoon read my address to the Council, the Rev. Mr. Crowe preached the sermon. Besides the public services we had two meetings of the Council each day—save on Saturday, which was a day off. The Council was tendered a reception Thursday evening by Mr. and Mrs. Reed, and on Saturday morning they were greatly entertained by the display of the horses of Mr. Clarence Watson at Fairmont farms. On Sunday morning Rev. Mr. Douglas preached in place of Bishop Gravatt, who was unexpectedly called away. On Sunday afternoon, at a mass meeting in the Church, Mr. O. I. Sands set forth with force and clearness the principles of the Laymen's Missionary Movement, and at night the Bishop of the Diocese preached the closing sermon.

Tuesday, 7—I attended the closing exercises of the Reynolds Memorial Training School for nurses, and delivered diplomas to three graduates.

Wednesday, 8—Officiated at the wedding of the Rev. P. N. McDonald at Spring Run, W. Va.

Sunday, 12—Morning preached in St. James' Church, Richmond, Va., and in the afternoon took part in the opening exercises of the Parish House of Emmanuel Church, Henrico county, erected in memory of the late Mr. Joseph Bryan.

Monday, 13—Friday, 17—In attendance on the closing exercises of the Theological Seminary and High School, near Alexandria, Va., including two meetings for the examination of candidates for the ministry, meeting of the education society, and two meetings of the Board of Trustees of the Seminary, the closing exercises of the High School and Seminary, two meetings of the Alumni and the ordination services on Friday, 17, when I ordained Mr. Edgar W. Halleck, Deacon, and Bishop Gravatt ordained Mr. A. B. McKinley, Priest.

Sunday, 19—Morning Parkersburg, Good Shepherd. Evening took part in service at same church.

Monday, 20—Attended two meetings of the Trustees of Kenyon College, Gambier, O.

Sunday, 26—Morning and evening, Christ Church, Fairmont. At the morning service confirmed eleven persons.

JULY.

Sunday, 3rd, A. M.—Preached and administered the Holy Communion in the Church of the Epiphany, Okonoko, and p. m. took part in the service in St. Stephen's, Romney, the Rev. Mr. Douglas preaching. These services (as also that in the morning at St. Stephen's, where Bishop Gravatt preached, and that in Emmanuel, Moorefield, the same morning, where Rev. Mr. Brittingham was the preacher) were in connection with the celebration of the 25th anniversary of the rectorship of Rev. Geo. A. Gibbons, who at the same time completed his 35th year of service in the Diocese. During this whole time he has most faithfully and acceptably labored, and not only his brethren, but the whole community, delighted to do him honor.

Monday, 4th.—Attended two receptions, one at the Rectory and the other at the home of the parishioners, which furnished the occasion for cordial congratulations and also for the presentation of testimonials from the Bishops and other clergy, from members of the congregation of Romney and Moorefield and from many friends not connected with the Parish.

Tuesday, 5th—Thursday, 7th.—Was called to Richmond, Va., by the illness of my aged mother, and on Wednesday, 6th.—Preached a memorial sermon in Emmanuel Church, Henrico County, on the occasion of the celebration of the 50th anniversary of its consecration.

Sunday, 10th.—A. M., Trinity, Parkersburg; P. M., the Good Shepherd.

Sunday, 17th.—A. M., Trinity, Parkersburg; P. M., Good Shepherd.

Tuesday, 19th.—Attended the Fairmont Clericus in Morgantown. I consider these informal meetings of the clergy of great value.

Wednesday, 20th—Friday, 22nd.—In attendance of my mother in Richmond.

Sunday, 24th.—A. M., Trinity, Parkersburg; P. M., Good Shepherd.

Monday, 25th.—Attended a meeting called in Clarksburg looking to the Federation of the Churches, to manifest more their essential unity and to promote the efficiency of their co-operation in common tasks.

Sunday, 30th.—A. M., Trinity, Parkersburg; P. M., Good Shepherd.

AUGUST.

Saturday, 6.—Church of the Messiah, Alderson. I was glad to see that the church had been cleaned and renovated, and that they are about to put on a new roof. For the convenience of administration, Alderson has been transferred to the Hinton circle, taking as it were the place of Beckley now grouped with Princeton.

Sunday, 7.—A. M. and P. M. All Saints' Union administering the communion and confirming two. In the afternoon preached in St. Michael's, Salt Sulphur. This is an old but very substantial stone building, erected before the war, largely by visitors from Charleston, S. C. Passing through various fortunes, it was practically a wreck, when Gen'l Appleton, the proprietor of the Springs, turned it over to Rev. Mr. Easter, the Rector at Union, three miles distant. With energy and judgment Mr. Easter has labored for its restoration, and now, after expending about $650, we have a chapel which will answer a long-felt need.

Sunday, 14.—A. M. and P. M. St. Thomas' Church, White Sulphur. In the morning consecrated the church and in the evening confirmed one. In the afternoon preached in Emmanuel, Oakhurst, near the White Sulphur. This church accomodates the large number of our people who are too far off to attend services at St. Thomas. Emmanuel is the 78th new church I have preached in since I came to West Virginia. Of this number seven take the place of old buildings and five represent the renewal of work where the church building had been destroyed or abandoned.

Tuesday, 16.—At Clover Lick, baptized two infants.

Sunday, 21.—A. M., Church of the Good Shepherd, Parkersburg.

Sunday, 28.—A. M., St. John's, Willow Island. Owing to the decay of the old building, and such shifting of the population as render the old site no longer desirable, it has been determined to erect a new church near the river.

P. M., Church of the Messiah, Waverly. There two churches are now under the care of Rev. Mr. Fish, who has his headquarters at Sistersville. His field is too wide spread, but no better arrangement can be devised at present.

Tuesday, 30.—At Ravenswood, baptized a child.

Wednesday, 31.—In Trinity, Parkersburg, confirmed two.

SEPTEMBER.

Sunday, 4.—Morning, Weston; afternoon, Middle Run; evening, Weston.

I was glad to welcome Mr. Lee to his new eld, and elieve that the work wil prosper under his hand.

Monday, 5.—Sutton. Found the town much improved since my last visit.

Tuesday, 6.— Preached in the new Presbyterian Church, Gassaway. Here we have only two communicants, but I believe there is special work we can do.

Sunday, 11.—Morning, preached in the Good Shepherd, Parkersburg, and evening took part in the service.

Monday, 12.—Arrived in Martinsburg about midday on my way to attend the Eastern Convocation in Middleway, but was met by a telegram announcing the sudden death of my sister-in-law, Mrs. Joseph Bryan, of Richmond, and in consequence went on to that city.

Tuesday, 20.—Board of Missions, New York.

Wednesday, 21.—In the afternoon laid the cornerstone of Emmanuel Church, Keyser. The building I found nearly under roof. Then after a delay of 25 years or more, we see our hopes about to be consummated. Too much praise cannot be awarded to Mr. Fish for his energy, faithfulness and discretion in this work. Our thanks are also due to Hon. Thomas B. Davies for the donation of a valuable lot, and to the small but active congregation which has cheerfully and bravely seconded Mr. Fish's efforts.

Saturday, 24.—At the home of Mr. Edward Williamson, in Brooke county, baptized an infant.

Sunday, 25.—Morning, St. John's Church. Also at the home of Mr. Samuel Boater, baptized an infant.

In the afternoon preached in a hall at Follansbee. The foundation of the church there has been begun and the bricks are on the ground. Mr. Gibson is pushing the work with energy and discretion. Evening, Christ Church, Wellsburg. Preached and confirmed two.

Tuesday, 27.—Took part in the exercises attending the unveiling of a statue of Gen. Thomas J. (Stonewall) Jackson, on the grounds of the Capitol, Charleston.

Wednesday, 28.—In Christ Church, Wellsburg. Attended the sessions of the Northwestern Convocation. Owing to the very feeble condition of my aged mother, I shortened my stay in Wellsburg, and also cancelled an appointment I had in Smithfield for Friday, 30th.

OCTOBER.

Sunday, 2.—Preached in St. James Church, Richmond, Va., and administered the Holy Communion.

Wednesday, 5.—Took part in the opening services of the General Convention at Cincinnati, and during the month was in attendance at same. The last days of this month were spent in Richmond, Va., in attendance upon my honored mother, who at the full age of 90 years, entered into rest Wednesday, Oct. 26th.

Sunday, 30.—Preached Emmanuel Church, Henrico Co., Va.

NOVEMBER.

Tuesday, 1.—In Emmanuel Church, administered the Holy Communion.

Thurs., 3-Fri., 4.—Attended the meeting of the Board of Missions in New York. The Board was reorganized and put into working order, according to the New Canon.

Wednesday, 9.—Theological Seminary of Virginia. Trustees meeting.

Sunday, 13.—A. M. Bruce Chapel. Preached and administered the Holy Communion. P. M., Christ Church, Pt. Pleasant, confirmed four. This Parish is now enjoying the ministration of the Rev. Mr. Davidson, and is in an encouraging condition. The Church is burdened with a heavy debt upon the Rectory, but is making brave and constant effort to reduce it. At the service during my visit the ever faithful ladies of the congregation made an offering of $400 for their indebtedness, and it is hoped by next easter to refuce the whole debt to less than $2,000.

Tuesday, 15.—Attended a meeting of the Federation of Churches in Clarksburg, and made an address. I was chosen President of the Federation for the coming year, and we hope for good results from the organization.

Wednesday, 16.—In Christ Church, Clarksburg, preached and administered the Holy Communion. The rest of the day was taken up with the organization of the Sunday School Institute for our churches in the central part of the State. The importance of the Sunday School work calls for every effort that can be made to increase its efficiency. Rev. Mr. Brydon of Morgantown was chosen President.

Thursday, 17.—In Romney, confirmed two persons in private. P. M., preached in Zion Church, North River. Although we cannot maintain regular services in this church, I am entirely convinced of the wisdom of Mr. Gibbons in giving a semi-occasional service at this point, and also in allowing its free use at other times by the Churches in the community.

Sunday, 20.—Good Shepherd, Parkersburg.

Sunday, 27.—Morgantown. A. M., preached, administered the Holy Communion and confirmed seven. In the afternoon preached in St. John's, Sabraton. Here in a suburb of Morgantown Mr. Brydon has built a neat and inexpensive Chapel and maintains a Sunday School and regular services. P. M., preached in Trinity Church, Morgantown.

DECEMBER.

Sunday, 4th.—A. M. Church of the Transfiguration, Buckhannon. P. M. Spruce Chapel; confirmed one. The Rev. Mr. Magee, who has recently moved to Elkins, has charge of this work. I find many tokens of interest, especially in the country, around Spruce Chapel.

Tuesday, 6th.—Attended in Clarksburg, a meeting of the Executive Committee of the Church Federation.

Sunday, 11th.—A. M. Church of the Good Shepherd, Parkesburg. P. M. Took part in the service at the same church.

Thursday, 15th.—Grace Church, Cresaps. This was an ideal winter evening, clear and cold, with a deep snow covering the ground, making the sleighing perfect. The attendance at service was gratifying.

Sunday, 18th.—A. M. Parkersburg, Trinity Church. P. M. Parkersburg, Church of the Good Shepherd.

Sunday, 25th.—A. M. Took part in the service at the Church of the Good Shepherd and administered the Holy Communion. P. M. Preached.

Tuesday, 27th.—Made a short address at the Christmas celebration of the Sunday School of the Good Shepherd.

Thursday, 28th.—Visited Ripley, but had no service, as repairs and improvements on the church were not completed.

Friday, 29th.—Visited Ravenswood to confer with the Rector and Warden.

JANUARY, 1911.

Sunday, 1st.—A. M. Preached in the Church of the Good Shepherd, Parkersburg, and administered the Holy Communion. P. M. Took part in the service.

Friday 6th.—Took part in the service at the Good Shepherd and administered the Holy Communion.

Sunday, 8th.—A. M. Preached in St. Luke's Church, Marietta, Ohio. P. M. In Christ Church, Williamstown.

Sunday, 15th.—A. M. St. Paul's, Sistersville. P. M. Church of the Messiah, Waverly. P. P. M. Grace Church, St. Marys.

Sunday, 22nd.—A. M. St. Matthew's, Wheeling. In the afternoon visited the Sunday School at Elm Grove and also inspected St. Paul's Church in its new location. Not only is the new location much better than the old, but advantage was taken of the removal of the building from the old to the new site greatly to enlarge and improve it and to put a high pitched and well lighted basement under the whole church, so that for all practical purpose the plant has more than doubled the value it had before. Mr. Stryker and his earnest lay helpers, Mr. Chas. Woods and Mr. Garth Hearne, are greatly to be congratulated on the result. The enlarged and improved building, with the Sunday School vigorously maintained, give large promise for the future. What is now needed is an additional clerical worker. P. M. Preached in St. Andrew's, Wheeling. Our efforts to supply this church have not yet been successful. In the meantime with the help of the Laymen's League, and the officers of the Church, and of the Sunday School, and the faithful attendance of the chair, St. Andrew's seems holding its own fairly well.

Tuesday, 24th-Thursday, 26th.—During these days the North Western Convocation was in session in the Church of the Good Shepherd, Parkersburg. It was a most enjoyable and profitable occasion—the services were well attended. There were five public services and four business sessions of the Convocation. On Thursday there were also two meetings of the Diocesan Missionary Committee, to which Rev. Mr. Gibson came from Huntington and Rev. Mr. Alfriend from Charles Town. Bishop Gravatt was with us during the whole session.

Sunday, 29th.—A. M.: Preached in the Presbyterian Church at Cairo. Here we have six or eight faithful communicants, and there seems some prospects of having a chapel. Such a building is valuable not only for our people of Cairo, but also because it strengthens the mission at Pennsboro. P. M.: Preached in our church at Pennsboro, and, although the night was inclement, we had a good congregation. By calling on the aid of the clergy nearest Pennsboro, we expect to resume regular services, beginning with such service on the third Thursday evening of each month.

Tuesday, 31st.—Thursday, Feb. 2.—In St. John's, Charleston; attended the sessions of the Kanawha Convocation. The Kanawha Convocation comprises about one-half the territory of the Diocese and nearly one-half the population. It has within its bounds nearly 1800 communicants. It was of this territory the late Maj. Thompson spoke when he told me that he knew the time when in all its limits there were not a dozen communicants, and at our Primary Council in 1878 the number reported was about 200. At that time there were five church buildings, where now there are 39; there were four clergy, as against a full force of 18 at present; three rectories where now there are 16, and contributions (excluding current expenses) of $541, as against $9,474 during the past year.

FEBRUARY.

Sunday, 5th—Preached in the Church of the Nativity, Huntsville, Ala.

Tuesday, 7th.—Thursday, 9th.—In attendance on the Board of Missions in New York. Very important measures were adopted touching the apportionment for General Missions, which will elsewhere be brought to your notice.

Saturday, 11th.—Attended the funeral of a relative in Baltimore, Md.

Sunday, 12.—Preached A. M. and P. M. in Memorial Church, Baltimore, from the charge of which I was called 33 years ago to my work in West Virginia.

Monday, 13th.—Attended the funeral of the late Bishop Whitaker in Philadelphia. The Church is distinctly poorer for the loss of so efficient and consecrated a man. His praise is in all the churches.

Sunday, 19th.—A. M.: Preached in the Church of the Good Shepherd, Parkersburg. P. M.: Took part in the services.

Thursday, 23rd.—Visited Huntington to confer with the Rector and Vestry.

Sunday, 26th.—A. M.: Preached in Trinity Church, Parkersburg. P. M.: Took part in the service at the Church of the Good Shepherd.

MARCH.

Wednesday, 1st.—Made an address in the Church of the Good Shepherd, Parkersburg, and administered the Lord's Supper.

Friday, 3rd.—Church of the Good Shepherd.

Sunday, 5th.—A. M.: Preached in the Church of the Good Shepherd. In the afternoon visited the jail in Parkersburg, and addressed the prisoners.

During the few days of the last week I attended several meetings of the State Convention of the Y. M. C. A. This association, so widely and favorably known, stands for a good deal of Institutional work that the Churches do not undertake, and also furnishes a meeting place for young men that have the advantages of a club, without its disadvantages. Evangelic work is also done in various ways, and a distinct demand is made upon the men of our communities to stand up more openly for Christ, and for the good of their fellows.

Tuesday 7.—Preached in Trinity Church, Parkerburg.

Sunday, 12.—Preached in the church of the Advent, Huntsville, Ala.

Thursday, 6.—Acting for Bishop Beckwith, I preached in the Methodist church at Gurley and confirmed six persons. On the evening of the same day I preached in St. Luke's Scottsboro.

Sunday, 19.—Preached in Church of the Advent, Huntsville, Ala.

Thursday, 23.—Preached in St. Luke's church, Norfolk, Va.

Sunday, 26.—Preached a. m. and p. m. in Emmanuel church, Henrico, Co., Va., and in the afternoon made an address at Pine Camp in the immediate neighborhood.

APRIL.

Sunday, 2.—In Zion church Charles Town, preached and confirmed twelve. In the evening of the same day preached in St. Phillip's church and confirmed fourteen, also visited the Sunday Schools of both churches and addressed them.

Tuesday, 4.—A. M., preached to the congregation of Zion church, Charles Town.

Sunday, 9.—P. M., preached in St. Luke's, Wheeling and confirmed twenty-three. A. M., preached in St. Andrew's—this congregation has been holding together wonderfully during the vacancy, by the help of the Wheeling clergy and Archdeacon Spurr, and the well directed labors of the Layman's League.

Monday, 19.—Made an address in St. Luke's, Wheeling. At noon made an address in St. Matthew's, Wheeling, and in the evening preached in the Hall of Follansbee and confirmed five. In the face of some discouragements Mr. Gibson has shown great zeal and discretion in pushing on this work, and the prospect is now for a speedy consummation.

Tuesday, 11.—In Christ church Wellsburg, I preached and confirmed seven.

Thursday, 12.—Parkersburg, Good Shepherd.

Friday, 14.—Parkersburg, Good Shepherd.

Saturday, 15.—Emmanuel church, Keyser, preached and confirmed eight.

Sunday, 16.—Easter Day. Preached and confirmed two Emmanuel church Keyser and administered the Holy Communion. Thus after many years of effort we have a church at Keyser, and the people are looking forward hopefully to having regular service, beginning with the summer. P. M., of the same day preached in Grafton and confirmed one. The people in Grafton have been somewhat depressed by Mr. Willes departure, but they are ready to prosecute the work with energy under a new leader.

Monday, 17.—In St. Andrew's Mannington, I preached and confirmed three.

Thursday, 21.—In Grace church, Elkins, preached and confirmed four.

Friday, 22.—I visited Parsons but had no service, on account of local conditions.

Sunday, 23.—I preached in Trinity church Thomas—this church is not entirely finished, but is still available for service. It cost about $700, and furnishes an example to other places where but a small fund is available for a church building. I am convinced that by despising the day of small things and declining to build within our means, we have, in many places, suffered great loss. Counting churches rebuilt and completed, this church at Thomas is the 79th new building I have preached during my 33 years of service, and there is still one I have not seen, i. e. Grace church, Wake Forest. In the afternoon I preached at Douglas and in the evening in St. Barnabas church, Davis.

Monday, 24.—I officiated in Davis at funeral of Mrs. Warden, perhaps the oldest of our members. She will be greatly missed in the church and in the community. The last four points I have mentioned will be supplied with regular service by the summer, by the minister resident in Keyser.

Sunday, 30.—A. M., in Trinity, Shepherdstown, I preached and confirmed three. P. M., in Trinity, Martinsburg, preached and confirmed four.

MAY.

Tuesday and Wednesday, 2 and 3.—In New York attending the annual meeting of the Board of Missions.

Sunday, 7.—In Trinity, Parkersburg, preached and confirmed ten. P. M., in church of the Good Shepherd, preached and confirmed six.

Monday, 8.—In Grace church St. Mary's, preached and confirmed five.

Sunday, 14.—A. M., and P. M. Preached in St. Ann's, New Martinsville.

Tuesday, 16.—Attended a meeting of the Inter. Church Federation of Clarksburg, and p. m., preached in a hall at Smithfield, Wetzel County, and confirmed three.

Sunday, 21.—A. M., preached in Ascension church, Hinton, and addressed the Sunday School. P. M., St. Peter's church, Glen Jean, confirmed two, (from McDonald.)

Monday, 22.—In the Union church at Minden, I baptized one adult and one infant, preached and confirmed four.

Tuesday, 23.—At Scarbro, baptized two children and p. m., preached in the Presbyterian church, McDonald. These five places last mentioned are under the charge of a layman, Mr. C. C. Thurber, who has done most efficient work, and greatly commended himself to all the people among whom he has labored.

Wednesday, 24.—I attended the annual meeting at the Sheltering Arms, Hansford, and after an address by Dr. G. C. Schoolfield I delivered the diploma of the school to three graduate nurses.

Thursday, 25.—A. M., Preached at St. John's, Charleston. P. M., preached in Trinity church, Huntington, and confirmed eight.

Friday, 26.—Attended Evening Prayer in the Presbyterian church, Fort Spring.

Saturday, 27.—At Fort Spring, confirmed one person. Prevented by the storm from coming out to the Friday Evening service.

Sunday, 28.—A. M., church of the Incarnation, Ronceverte, confirmed two. P. M., Preached in the Presbyterian church, Lewisburg, before the pupils of the two schools, and the congregation of the Presbyterian, Methodist and Episcopal churches. It is with great regret that we are losing Rev. Mr. Dandridge from this field—There seems to be no way to fill one gap but by making another, and so the weaker congregations continually suffer in the interests of the larger. Shall we not be more earnest in praying the Lord of the Harvest to send forth laborers?

JUNE

Sunday, 4.—Preached in St. Paul's church, Ogontz, Pa., and administered the Lord's Supper.

SUMMARY.

106 visits paid to 68 places in the Diocese; 159 persons confirmed; 1 burial; 7 baptisms; sermons and addresses 150; 78 meetings; 30 visits paid to 13 places outside the Diocese; 6 persons confirmed for the Bishop of Alabama. Among the meetings are included the two meetings of the Board of Trustees of the Alexandria Seminary. The meeting of the Trustees of Gambier, and four meetings of the Board of Missions in New York, and the three weeks session of the General Convention in Cincinnati.

HOSPITALS.

Our Hospitals carry their good work with marked success.

Through the continued earnest work of Mr. Spurr, the final payment has been made on the new building at Hansford, and the Sheltering Arms may now boast of a plant second to none in the state, which has been built and equipped at a cost of $86,500. It has a capacity of about 100 patients.

During the past year 1125 patients have been cared for—the number of nursing days has been 19,157.

Fifteen pupil nurses have been in attendance during the year, of which number three received diplomas of graduation.

The management of the Sheltering Arms is efficient and economical, and everywhere that it is known it has the highest standing.

FEDERATION OF CHURCHES.

On Monday, July 25, 1910 it was my privilege, with the Rev. Mr. Brydon and the Rev. Mr. Ewell, to attend in Clarksburg, a conference called for the purpose of putting the Churches of West Virginia in touch with the Federal Council of the Churches of Christ in America. The object of which may be stated in a word to be "to secure a larger combined influence for the Churches of Christ in all matters affecting the moral and social condition of the people, so as to promote the application of the law of Christ in every relation of human life".

The objects of the Federation may be further indicated by a quotation from a report, "We believe that the great Christian bodies in our country should stand together, should lead in the discussion of and give impulse to all great movements that make for righteousness. We believe that questions like those of marriage and divorce, Sabbath desecration, social evils, child labor, the relation of labor to capital, problems that are created by foreign immigration, the prevalence of an aggressive military spirit, the betterment of the condition of the laboring classes, and the moral and religious training of the young, and such like questions, concern Christians of every name, and demand their united and concerted action, if the Church is to lead effectively in the conquest of the world for Christ.

The leading thought in this whole movement is that expressed in the preamble to the Plan of Federation, "That in the Province of God the time has come when it seems fitting more fully to manifest the essential oneness of the Christian Churches in America in Jesus Christ as their divine Lord and Savior, and to promote the spirit of fellowship, service and co-operate among them."

It is important also to draw special attention to the fact that the Federal Council claims no authority over the constituent bodies adhering to it, but would limit its province to the expression of its counsel. It does not undertake to draw up a common creed, or form of government or of worship, or in any way to limit the full autonomy of the Christian bodies adhering to it.

Along these lines a State Federation of Churches has been formed in West Virginia, and it is now sought to have our Church join it. This State Federation is simply a joint committee of officially appointed representatives of the State denominational bodies. These denominations are accepted as they exist, without debate as to their justification or permanence, and their independence is left unimpaired.

To facilitate the formation of such State Federation a Constitution and By-laws have been prepared and sent to the various Churches, upon the adoption of which they come into the Federal Union. This Constitution may seem to be rather elaborate, but as it would be almost impossible to get the constituent bodies together to consider such a document, and as the interchange of resolutions between these constituencies would involve almost interminable delay, it has been thought best to propose to all the Churches a constitution and by-laws which would provide at once for all contingencies without touching upon questions of faith or order and so without trenching upon any rights, or in the least impairing their independence.

The federation it is sought to form is in no sense a new organization with new machinery to divert or consume energy, but it is rather to make the Churches more efficient in their own distinctive work, and enable them to see that the whole commonwealth is so ministered to and cared for, that some church or group of churches will be responsible for every square mile. So we may hope to secure intelligent co-operation in doing whatever may be wise for the Churches to do either in civil, moral, philanthropic or religious lines, and by its existence and use for this purpose to make unnecessary the further increase in the number of un-denominational or interdenominational organizations for special work, and will thus protect the Churches from many appeals for aid which tend to dissipate their energy and divert the stream of their benevolence from the regular and recognized channels. This is one of the most important objects of the Federation, for there can be no doubt but that the divided condition of Protestant Christendom in years past, has been made a reasonable excuse for the organization of a multitude of agencies outside the Churches, but looking to them for financial support. Why should not the Church through a Federation like this, plan to regain its lost leadership, and give united support to those whom they shall call to look after the details of service conducted in the interest and in behalf of all the Churches? We want to learn all the facts which appeal to Christian public sentiment, and we want to ally all the factors; i. e. the Federated Churches—and overcoming the traditional lack of co-operation between ecclesiastical bodies, convince them of the necessity of co-operation in order to accomplish their common tasks. And we want too to avoid the evils of over-lapping and overlooking; i. e., having one town or neighborhood greatly over-churched, and another apparently outside the circle of all Christian endeavor. As things now are there can be no doubt but that the number of churches in some localities so numerous that they often duplicate and interfere, yet in other places there are multitudes of neglected people especially among the incoming multitudes, among the crowded population of the cities and the scattered inhabitants of small villages and sections entirely rural. In carrying on such work the Federated Churches ought to know every individual in the entire community as well as their own membership, and this can only be done by a cordial co-operation both because the task is too great for any one church, and because the churches are often so close together that unless they intentionally co-operate they will inevitably compete and perhaps clash.

I trust you will give this whole matter your careful consideration. The General Convention meeting in Richmond in 1907, while not adopting the plan, authorized its Commission on Christian Unity to appoint delegates to the Federal Council which met in Philadelphia in 1908, and these delegates were duly enrolled in the membership.

THE PROPOSED CHANGE OF NAME.

It is not my custom to consume your time by any extensive mention of passing events, or by a lengthy review of the action of the General Convention in its Tri-ennial sessions, but I desire today to call your attention to the question of the change of name of the Church; which, as on several occasions before, was quite fully debated in Cincinnati last Fall, and failed in the House of Deputies by the narrow margin of one vote. And my special reason for this departure from my usual custom is to be found in the fact that those opposed to the change, and among which number I place the Diocese of West Virginia, have been singularly inactive in any preparation for a test of strength with those who favor the change.

In the winter before the last General Convention, I was invited by one of our convocations to read a paper on the subject of a change in the name of the Church. I declined, for this among other reasons, that I did not think it advisable to reopen a question¹ which I thought was, for the time, at least, settled, and would hardly come up for discussion in Cincinnati. Of course this only shows that I was not alert as I ought to have been, and I mention this not to discount my own judgment, but to say that I believe that a great many like-minded with myself were in the same condition of blissful ignorance. In the meantime, preparations were being made, and as far as I know in a perfectly proper and legitimate manner, to bring this matter up again before the Convention in Cincinnati; which preparation culminated in a Pre-Convention Conference, which resulted in the adoption of a series of propositions recommending legislation, which was to be introduced into the House of Deputies.

I am not to be understood as criticising this Pre-Convention Conference, but mention it rather as showing that those who opposed the change of name were, as it were, caught napping, when this longmooted question came up for discussion.

Without any formal discussion of the question, I want to call attention to certain aspects of it.

At the Pre-Convention Conference, it was represented that to adopt the name "American Catholic" would result disastrously to the welfare of the Church in certain sections of the country. That certainly was a strong argument against the adoption of that name, and as far as I know, the name was not on this account prepassed. But an important question is, would not a change in the name of the Church, by the omission of the word Protestant have an equally disastrous result? Meantime, since we have so long borne our present title, and since, carrying it, we have made such great strides, the burden of proof clearly lies with those who desire the change; and while there always will be leaders, it is a serious question whether they always voice the sentiment of the rank and file. We have illustrations of this in the State, as in the Church. In this connection it is worthy of note, that in the last General Convention one of the most vigorous denouncers of the word Protestant, calling it "a misnomer, a rope around the neck, and a stumbling-block to all progress," said, in the same speech, that for the sake of peace he thought the time inexpedient for a vote upon it. It is, I think, very evident that it is one thing to take a name, but that it is quite another thing to give it up, for some may think that we are ashamed of it, and of what it connotes. An essential part of the proposal made in Cincinnati was to drop the word Protestant from all our formularies. This is clearly shown by the Resolution offered, that a Joint Commission be appointed to recommend what further legislation is necessary or desirable in order to bring the official standards of the Church into harmony with the action proposed.

As far as I have been able to understand the contention made, objection was rather to the word Protestant than to its contents. Indeed the Resolutions offered in the House of Deputies expressly assert that in the action proposed there was not intended or implied any changed relationship toward principles established by or through the Reformation of the Church of England, as those principles are enshrined in the Book of Common Prayer. And yet, in spite of this disclaimer, the change proposed could not fail to be a disturbing element in the Church and for this among other reasons, that there are many to whom the proposition to omit the word Protestant causes not only a feeling of apprehension and opposition, but a sense of real pain. They feel that the omission of the word would be a surrender of much of the content of the word as is dear to them. And to all such persons it is no adequate compensation to say that the omission of the word Protestant from the title-page of the Prayer Book would be accompanied by resolutions expressly affirming the loyalty of this Church to those things connoted by the word Protestant. Such Resolutions might, indeed, be put in a Preface, but they would by the great mass of people be overlooked, while the title-page of the Prayer Book would be known and read of all men. It seems to me a very round-about and cumbrous way of affirming our loyalty to the principles of the Reformation in the English Church, to drop the word that in the eyes of the world, and in the thoughts of our own people stands for those principles, and then seek to make compensation for the omission by Resolutions. The question is not now about adopting a name, but of giving up one that is historic, and which, with all its associations, carries with it a meaning that on the whole it expresses better than any series of resolutions could possibly do.

There can be no doubt but that the proposition to change the name of the Church was very skilfully presented. The proposed form of the title-page was spoken of as a kind of compromise, the one side giving up the favorite name "American Catholic," and the other, as a corresponding concession, agreeing to omit the word Protestant; but the Pre-Convention Conference held was an entirely private affair. There was no such representative conference as would justify the characterization of the proposition to change in the way indicated, as a compromise between the two wings of thought in the Church. If the question had been about the adoption of a name, some color would have been given to the contention, but it was a very different thing when the question was as to the change of a name under which the majority of the Church has been working contentedly for more than a hundred years. The party of change proposes one name which to many seems highly objectionable, and then says to those who are satisfied with what they have: "We will not press this objectionable name, if you will give up that under which you have worked all these years." In other words, the party of change proposes to give up a name which they have not got, and asks as a concession that the party opposed to change give up one they securely hold, and which is hallowed by the associations of more than a hundred years. Such a transaction as is thus indicated cannot be described as a compromise or concession; if we want to be accurate, we must call it an unconditional surrender.

There are a good many considerations which, though they can hardly be termed arguments, yet deserve notice. We have had a great deal to do in the way of explaining our position in time past, and we do not want to begin all over again to explain why we drop the word Protestant from our title. In Cincinnati more than one speaker asserted that the Reformed Episcopal Church would adopt our present name as soon as we relinquished it; and although this need not be considered a controlling consideration, yet to have them take the name under which we have been known during so many years would in a great many ways and to a great many people, be very confusing and misleading.

I desire further to summarize, substantially in the words of another and to say that, the change of name is advocated by those who say they want to find common ground for opposing factions.

First to make the issue clear: To one party the word Protestant is objectionable because it associates this Church with certain Christian fellowships, whose origin is of recent date, and whose teaching is in some degree unacceptable to us. The contention is made, that by our name we are placed in a false light by those to whom Historical Christianity is a "sine qua non". According to these the word Protestant, stands simply for a negation and denial. It is not an adequate adject-tive for a Church which has retained the essential principles and elements of primitive Catholicity. They say that in the popular mind Catholic and Protestant are antithetical terms, and why should our title be the opposite of the reality. It is modern and we are ancient. The word Protestant should therefore be eliminated from our authoritative formularies, at least it should not obscure our Catholic heritage.

To the other party the word stands for more than a negative position. It stands for liberty—for a positive affirmation of an inherent right to reject and protest against mediaeval corruptions and claims which are at variance to Catholicity. The original Protestants were not mere negativists. When the Church of England threw the force of her influence in favor of Protestantism it implied no rejection of Catholic faith and order—rather its affirmation and defence. It implied no modification of the true Catholic position. Her leaders in Reformation times never denied her Protestantism—nor did they fail to assert her Catholicity. The old historical antithesis was not between Protestant and Catholic, but between Protestant and Papist. All this is still further fortified by the fact that this Church in the United States, has already adopted the word as a part of its name and designation. There is no necessity doctrinal or historical for altering it. Is it not, in view of all this, the part of wisdom, of sound and loyal churchmanship to seek a method of expression through which both sides (save only the irreconcilables) may assert the position to which they attach the most importance, without denying the position of the other side? Cannot the fair shield of the Church be emblazoned on the obverse and reverse sides with the legitimate and proper designation of Catholic and Protestant.

Some one has recently called attention to the fact that the chief practical function of a name is to designate rather than to describe. It is a mistake to oppose that a name in itself has any impressive or headway-making power. The Irvingites call themselves the Catholic Apostolic Church, and they remain a small and insignificant sect. If, e. g., we were to adopt the name American Catholic—this name would be accepted as a standing advertisement that we stand in some sort of secondary or variant relation to the Communion to which the term Catholic is, through inactivity yet in popular speech commonly applied, and there would henceforth be entailed upon us the awkward necessity of explaining where the newly named American Catholic church has been all these years.

Catholicity or sectarianism is not determined by names. Many attempts have been made in the past to transcend Sectarianism by the use of names that were meant to be inclusive of all of Christ's followers, as Friends, Brethren, Disciples, Christian; but each attempt has only resulted in the formation of another sect, and in narrowing another good word to the limits of a denominational designation. So long as we are not the whole, but only one among many communions we should be content with a name which is in keeping with this condition. It is with the condition we should quarrel, not with the name.

To touch for a moment on the merits of the question, it has been often said that there is no inherent contradiction between the two words, Protestant and Catholic, whatever might be our preference, if we had to go over again this whole process of giving a definite, distinctive name to the Church; yet as it is, one speaker in the Convention well said that the word Protestant stands for three things which are essentials of Catholicity. It stands for the open Bible, a free people, and justification by faith. Protestant is not simply negative, but it thus stands for something that is positive—for something that is necessary in and to the Church. Glancing back at history, one of the speakers in Cincinnati said: There have always been in the Church two principles dwelling side by side—the principle of freedom and the principle of authority. In the course of time authority was made to dominate over freedom, until at the Reformation freedom was given its rightful place. When the Church of England was transplanted to America, our fathers deliberately inserted the word Protestant in the name, in order to assert in unmistakable terms that freedom for which the Church stood, and, as history shows us, it is only through the assertion and maintainance of this freedom that true Catholicity can be had. It is lost to those who have either surrendered all authority, and degraded freedom into license, or who have given up their freedom entirely in their submission to authority. Both these principles must find their place in the Church, and both should be asserted on the title-page of the Prayer Book, for if we are to be the Church of the Reconciliation, we must stand fast to these two principles—authority and freedom.

It has been said that unless some such proposition as the one we have been discussing be accepted, the war for change will go on. Certainly peace is one of the most desirable things in the world, but it can hardly be said to be the most desirable. Even among the contending nations of the world, it is "peace with honor" that is sought after. If we be agreed that that which the word Protestant connotes must be cherished and maintained, can we do this better than by retaining the word which has passed into history, and has a distinct meaning, which it would be hard to set forth plainly by any substitute?

It has been recently very frankly said by a writer in a letter published in The Living Church, that "the chief reason why we want the change of name is to dissociate ourselves in the popular mind from those who profess and call themselves Protestants." Now I, for one, and I believe a great many with me, would greatly deprecate this very thing; we do not want to dissociate ourselves in the popular mind from those good people, but we want to draw nearer to them, and have them draw nearer to us, and so work for the unity of Christ's Church. No doubt but that there may be many who profess and call themselves Protestants whom we might characterize as Radical Protestants, from whom one might desire to dissociate himself in the popular mind; as there may be many who profess and call themselves Catholic—whether Roman or Greek or Anglican—whom we would place in the same category; but I think that is hardly the right way to put it. The last census gives the number of those who profess and call themselves Protestants in the United States as 20,287,742; these are communicants, representing, of course, a great many others. In going over the detailed report it appears that more than nine-tenths of these, i. e., 19,126,603, are such as we would commonly call Evangelical and Orthodox. If the chief reason why a change of name is desired is to dissociate ourselves in the popular mind from this large number of our fellow-citizens who profess and call themselves Christians, then I think that purpose ought to be still more distinctly avowed, that the clergy and the rank and file of the Church may give their judgment upon it. Great as may be our objection to the omission of the word Protestant from the title-page, nothing that has been said above is to be considered as objecting to the insertion of the words "Holy Catholic," so that the title-page shall read:

The Book of Common Prayer
And Administration of the Sacraments and other Rites and Ceremonies

according to the use of that branch of the Holy Catholic Church, known as the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States of America.

SUPPORT OF CLERGY.

Nothing has given your Bishop more pain than the knowledge of the inadequacy of the salaries most of the clergy were receiving. They have labored in various ways to the best of their ability to remedy this so great evil, and not altogether without success—something has been done and more remains to be done. They hope to make a decided advance along this line in the near future.

And in this connection I must say that the Bishops and other members of the Missionary Committee cannot but be greatly gratified at the response to their late appeal. Altogether up to this date many persons have replied to the appeal by sending $1,660 to our treasury, and the Woman's Auxiliary has sent $127, making a total of $1,787.

We have been greatly helped and encouraged by this prompt and hearty response, and are able hopefully to face the work of another year.

Of course, there is yet an immense reserve power in the Diocese, and we cannot but feel that we ought so far to trust to it as to undertake larger things for Christ and the Church.

We look upon the number that has so cordially responded to our late appeal as a nucleus around which may gather a band of as many as 500 out of our constituency of 10,000 who will be ready each year, as occasion demands, to do for Church extension something more than the customary offering on the plate upon occasions of public worship.

All things come of God, let us gladly and freely give Him of His own.

MISSIONS.

There is no doubt but that there is now going on a great awakening of the Church in regard to its missionary work; i. e., evangelization of the world, or the spreading of the Gospel both at home and abroad. The principles that underlie this work were greatly emphasized in the World Missionary Conference held in Edinburg in 1910, and I want to remind you of some of them today.

As bearing specially upon the administration of our congregations, we must remember that it is absolutely necessary that we should have such organization as will secure the formation of a constituency upon which dependence for support can be placed—and this instead of the old resource of an occasional appeal from the chancel, however moving that appeal may be. There can be no substitute for the organized canvass and the personal appeal. And yet, however important an organization may be, we must remember that the problem of missionary work is not one of machinery but of life, and that the mere multiplication of machinery does not necessarily increase power. In speaking of the spread of the Gospel some one well says, that wherever a belief is intensely and passionately held it does not need wealth or numbers to cause it to spread, but it naturally and inevitably propogates itself, and there can be no doubt but that if the Christian Church were possessed, mastered and dominated by the faith which it possesses it could speedily do the work it has in hand, because its spiritual resources are simply without limit, being nothing less than the power and influence of the Holy Ghost as the indwelling and vitalizing energy of a new, abundant and constantly expanding life.

I would that whatever else it may be to us, that the forward movement now going on in the Church be taken by every one as a call to prayer. We can hardly fail to recognize the place which our Lord Jesus Christ gave to prayer both in His teaching and in the practice of His own life. A devout man has said that it is much more difficult really to pray for missions than to give to them. We can only really pray for missions if we habitually lead a life of prayer, and a life of prayer can only be led if we have entered into a life of communion with God. When the Church sets itself to pray with the same seriousness and strength of purpose that it has devoted to other forms of Christian effort it will see the Kingdom of God come with power. Pray ye therefore the Lord of the Harvest that He would send forth laborers into His Harvest.

As having a very practical bearing upon this whole question of Missions I must mention the action of the Board of Missions at its last meeting in New York early in May.

Two things were determined upon as expedient and necessary to do, and it is thought they can be accomplished if the churches generally will fall in with what we call the forward movement, giving a weekly offering for missions, and having an active Missionary Committee in every congregation whether it be large or small.

The total amount last year given by our 917,051 communicants to apply to appropriations was $811,954 or at the rate of a little over eighty-eight cents for each communicant. Of this sum the congregations gave $584,232 by offerings on the plate, the Sunday Schools by their Lenten offerings, $142,023, and the Woman's Auxiliary, $85,699.

The idea now is to have the Sunday Schools and Woman's Auxiliary contribute as before, and have their offerings distinctly credited to them, but at the end of the year count them all in as helping to make up a greatly increased apportionment of the congregations. In this way, although the Parishes are apportioned, each minister is free to raise the amount expected of him in such ways as commend themselves to his judgment.

The way the case stands is simply this: If in place of falling $143,468 short last year the congregations had instead of giving $584,232 given the full amount of their apportionment, viz., $727,700, the sum total given to appropriations from all sources, that is including the Sunday Schools and the Woman's Auxiliary would have been $955,422 instead of $811,954. So taking the larger sum as what we have a right to expect this year from the three sources mentioned, and adding to it, not what the work calls for in the way of enlargement, but what it seems imperatively to demand for its maintenance and natural increase; viz., the sum of $358,588, we have a sum total of $1,314,010 as that which we are now asking of the Church.

This is an increase from the rate of 88c to $1.43 for every communicant in the Church; and when we think of the very many—not less than several hundred thousand—throughout the length and breadth of the land, who though not communicants may be counted upon to help in this matter, the charge upon the whole Church at the rate of $1.43 per communicant seems very reasonable.

We may perhaps more fairly judge of the feasibility of securing this large increase by taking our own Diocese as an example. Our apportionment this year is $3,200, an increase of $900 over the previous year. If to this be added what the Sunday Schools gave last year in their Lenten offerings, $1,056, and what the Woman's Auxiliary gave directly to the General Fund, $480, we have a total of $4,736. The new apportionment for 1911, intended to include all sources, is $6,390. That may appear large, but it is after all only at the rate of $1.12 per communicant, which is 31c per communicant less than the rate for the Church at large.

Now I think it reasonable that there should be some increase from all the sources of supply mentioned above, as we are making a supreme effort this year. If then the offerings on the plate in Church could be increased from $3,200 to $3,600, and the Lenten offering of the Sunday Schools from $1,056 to $1,200, and the direct offerings of the Woman's Auxiliary from $480 to $600—a total increase in these three agencies of $664. If this be done we will have a total of $5,400, falling short of our apportionment $990. And this $990 it will be our duty to make up by personal application. Among our nearly 6000 communicants, supplemented as that number is by at least 2000 others who are regular supporters of the Church, it will not be difficult to find more than enough who will respond to the appeal in such a way as readily to make up the sum of $5,400 to $6,390 our full apportionment.

In the event of a failure in the congregations, or the Sunday Schools, or the Woman's Auxiliary to come up to the full amounts proposed for them the personal application could by energetic action be easily extended so as to cover all deficits. The great trouble seems to be not lack of money but lax administrations; e. g., up to April 1, only one month before the fiscal year closed, I find twenty-seven congregations and places that are still $877 short, and forty-one that apportioned at $749 had paid nothing at all. These figures indicate where the real trouble lies, and it is to be remembered that even if all these congregations eventually pay up that the general delay of churches all over the country in paying promptly costs the Board of Missions at least $1,000 a month in interest, as we must borrow to pay our appropriations when due for the maintenance of our missionaries and the credit of the Society. I trust we will all in our several spheres of action take hold of the mission work of the Church in an earnest business-like way.

PERSONAL.

I ask you to bear with me a few moments while I indulge in some personal remarks which the time seems to call for.

Since our last Council met in Fairmont in June, 1910 I have passed the three score years and ten, which if not marked as the limit of life, yet generally stands for the limit of active service. By the good hand of God upon me I am still able to go in and out among my people, and so to meet the usual demands of my office. That I can still do this is largely, if not entirely, owing to the invaluable assistance which for nearly twelve years I have received from Bishop Gravatt—an assistance extended so effectively and graciously that it has not only greatly lightened the labors I have still been permitted to render but secured to the Diocese that supervision and guidance which was needed.

I cannot let the occasion pass without thanking God for all the way in which he has led us through the thirty-three years and more of my Episcopate, and blessed our common work, we believe to the good of the people of this state, and to the glory of His great name. And I must also take advantage of this opportunity to record my grateful acknowledgment of the uniform kindness, and very partial consideration of my people—clergy and laity—always and everywhere.

Thirty-three years is a long time to go in and out among the people of the Diocese without friction or hinderance from any quarter.

The good Lord has granted us all to be of one mind in this His house. We have dwelt together in unity. Not only has all our Church work been carried on harmoniously, but you must permit me to say again that I am today profoundly moved at the memory of the unvarying thoughtful consideration shown to me personally during all these years. I were less than human did I not renew on an occasion of this kind the fixed purpose which I trust has been manifest in my past years of service in West Virginia, to do with my might what my hands find to do that shall be for the glory of God and the good of the Diocese.

It is a source of gratification to me that in addition to regular visitations in West Virginia, and occasional visitations on special occasions in eight of the neighboring Dioceses I have been able to serve the Church in helping to organize the work in two of her Foreign Fields, and that for twenty-five years it has been my privilege to share directly in the management of the General Missions of the Church—at home and abroad. And I also gratefully recall the fact that during all these thirty-three years of service I have been disabled by sickness only once—tho' then for a period of five months.

No one can tell how short may be the time of service for me, or for any of these my Brethren. Let us all so labor in our appointed fields that the Lord when He cometh shall find us watching and ready to give an account of our stewardship. Amen.

The Rev. Jno. S. Gibson, offered an amendment to Canon, 20 which was referred to the committee on canons.

The Rev. Mr. Stryker moved to extend the privileges of the floor to clergy in the Diocese not canonically resident and to visiting clergy of others Dioceses. Adopted. Whereupon the following were included: The Rev. L. Le Bas Cross, the Rev. W. R. Agate, M. D., the Rev. G. P. Bently, the Rev. W. M. Sidener, the Rev. W. H. Stimpson, the Rev. Mr. Tucker.

The Rev. Mr. Davidson offered a resolution relating to the subject of Christian unity, which on motion was referred to the committee on the state of the church.

The Rev. Mr. Spurr moved to refer the last part of the Bishop's address to a special committee to be appointed by the Bishop Coadjutor. Adopted. The following committee was appointed:

The Rev. B. M. Spurr

Mr. W. F. Fowler

The Rev, L. W. S. Stryker

Mr. C. L. Thompson

The Rev. J. S. Alfriend

On motion of the Rev. Mr. Stryker it was ordered that the sessions of the Council begin at 9:30 A. M. and 2:30 P. M.

The Rev. Mr. Stryker offered the following which was adopted:

Resolved that this Council rejoices with the beloved Bishop of this Diocese upon the completion of the work by which the splendid institution known as the Sheltering Arms Hospital becomes free and clear of debt, and extends its warmest congratulats to the Bishop and Rev. B. M. Spurr, to both of whom we owe, in largest measure, an expression of gratitude and appreciation for the accomplishment of this great work to the glory of God and for the benefit of suffering humanity.

Dr. Aschman offered a resolution with regard to performing marriage. It was referred to the Committee on Canons.

On motion the Council adjourned.

Bishop Gravatt presented the report of the General Clergy Relief Fund.

Mr. R. M. Browne submitted the report of the Trustees of the Permanent Fund. (See appendix A.)

Also the report of the Treasurer of the Episcopal Fund. (See appendix A.)

Both of these reports were referred to Committee on the Episcopal and Permanent Fund.

The Rev. Mr. Spurr of the Special Committee to consider the last part of the Bishop's address made the following report which was adopted by a rising vote:

The Special Committee, to whom was referred the concluding portion of the Episcopal address, beg leave to report that they have given the same the consideration which such an important subject deserves, and offer the following resolution:—

Resolved; that this thirty-fourth annual Council of the Diocese of West Virginia records its deep sense of appreciation of the words and spirit of the address of the Bishop which express his grateful acknowledgement of God's blessing, of the love and loyalty of the Diocesan family, of the Bishop's gratification because of the ability to render valuable service in the extra-Diocesan and foreign fields, during the thirty-three years of his Episcopate.

We, the members of the Council, hereby express our firm conviction that, under the wise, devoted and self-sacrificing leadership of our beloved Diocesan, the Church at large has been benefited and strengthened, and that his administrative ability and statesmanlike attitude in all that he has done are recognized by all whose interest in church work is intelligent and real. In our own state and Diocese, we know that we have a true father in God, beloved by all, and distinguished for his unusual qualities of mind and heart.

As the first Bishop of West Virginia, he has laid enduring foundations in all that makes for the uplift of man, and for righteousness of life. As the founder of the Sheltering Arms Hospital, he has placed in our midst a lasting memorial to his belief in Christian ministrations to the physical needs of mankind; and finally, as our chief Shepherd, he has the place of honor and affection in our hearts. Few in the Diocese look back with him beyond the generation which this year completes, but many there are who have come to manhood and womanhood during his Episcopate, who this day know and love him as a man who loves and serves his fellows with all his heart.

We congratulate him upon the completion of a generation in the Episcopate, and we pray that God may keep us ever grateful for the gift of his servant to us, and bless and preserve him to us for many days to come.

(Signed) E. M. SPURR,
 LEONARD W. S. STRYKER,
 C. L. MORRISON,
 FI FOWLER.

The Rev. Jno. S. Gibson of the Committee on New Parishes made the following report and moved the adoption of the appended resolution.

The Committee on New Parishes presents this report:

The application of St. Stephen's Mission, Romney, to be admitted into Union with the Council as a Parish has been duly considered by your Committee and the papers required by Canon found to be all in, and in due form as required by Canon 10 of our Constitution and Canons.

But your Committee are of opinion that the application should not be granted without serious consideration.

St. Stephen's, Romney, is an organized Mission and as such is entitled to representation by a lay delegate in this Council. She has made no such advance, either in members or contributions as would seem to justify her erection into a Parish with increased representation. She is still dependent for support largely, upon the Diocese and Missionary treasury—giving herself only $300 to the support of her Minister.

The erection of St. Stephen's into a Parish will mean that the Vestry elect the Missionary, who as one of the Missionary Clergy of the Diocese is under the direction of the Bishops of the Diocese and who following our long established custom, ought to be appointed by the Bishops.

It ought to be considered what effect the erection of one of the points in a series of Associated Missions and which must continue Missions and remain so associated into a parish will have upon the other Missions. Will Moorefield be content that Romney, with which it is associated, have all the power to select the Minister?

The idea of having "Organized Missions" was that a series of feeble parishes might be avoided, and that these "Organized Missions" might have the stimulus of the possibility of their being erected into Parishes to inspire their progress. This will be defeated if this application is granted.

Your Committee appreciates to the full the advancement made this year by the Romney Churchmen in adding $200 to their contribution to their own support, but we think it ought to be in a position to offer more than $300 towards the support of its minister and to be less dependent upon the funds of the Missionary treasury before it is erected into a Parish.

We therefore offer the following:

Resolved, That the Committee be discharged from further consideration of the subject.

JNO. S. GIBSON
R. W. TRAPNELL
JAS. L. FISH
G. A. ASCHMAN
C. L. THOMPSON
WM. G. PETERKIN

The Rev. Mr. Brydon moved as a substitute for the Committee's resolution that Hampshire Parish be admitted into Union with the Diocese.

Mr. W. G. Peterkin moved as a substitute for the whole matter, that the report of the Committee be recommitted. This motion prevailed.

The Standing Committee of the Diocese made this report:

REPORT OF THE STANDING COMMITTEE

June 1910 to June 1911.

The Standing Committee met Sept. 14th, 1910 in Middleway, and organized by electing Rev. G. A. Gibbons President, and Mr. C. A. Miller Secretary. The Committee considered the application of Mr. Wm. H. Cumpston for shortening a little the time of his candidacy for Holy Orders, which, on the recommendation of the Bishop, was done and Mr. Cumpston was then recommended for Ordination to the Diaconate.

December 29th, 1910—The Standing Committee met and consented to the Ordination and Consecration of the Rev. Charles Sumner Burch, D. D. to be Suffragan Bishop of the Diocese of New York.

January 7, 1911—The Standing Committee met and consented to the Ordination and Consecration of the Rev. Rogers Israel, D. D. to be Bishop of the Diocese of Erie, Pennsylvania. At the same time the Committee received and reluctantly accepted the resignation of Mr. Isaac Strider, who had long and faithfully served the Diocese on this Committee. The Secretary was instructed to notify Mr. Strider of the Committee's action and express the deep regret felt by the receipt of his letter of resignation.

The Committee then elected Mr. James Grantham, of Middleway, Jefferson County, to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Mr. Strider.

March 30th, 1911—The Committee recommended Mr. James Henry Jackson as a candidate for Holy Orders. At the same time the Committee concurred in and consented to the election and transfer of the Rt. Rev. Sidney Partridge, D. D., Missionary Bishop of Kyoto to be Bishop of the Diocese of Kansas City.

May, 16th, 1911—The Committee met and the papers of the Rev. Edgar W. Halleck (Deacon) were then considered and Mr. Halleck was recommended for ordination to the Priesthood.

At the same meeting Mr. Robert E. Lee Strider was recommended to the Diaconate.

They also recommended that the request of the Rev. Wm. H. Cumpston (Deacon) for a dispensation from the study of the Greek language be granted.

At a meeting of the Standing Committee, duly convened in the City of Wheeling this 8th day of June, 1911, the Committee consented to the Ordination and Consecration of the Rev. Philip Mercer Rhinelander to be Bishop Coadjutor of the Diocese of Pennsylvania, and to the Ordination and Consecration of the Rev. Thomas James Garland to be Suffragan Bishop of the Diocese of Pennsylvania. The Committee then recommended Mr. Richard L. Merryman as a candidate for Holy Orders.

The Rev. Mr. Trapnell moved to reconsider the vote by which the Report of the Committee on New Parishes was recommitted to that Committee. The motion prevailed. Whereupon the report of the Committee on New Parishes was made the order of the day for tomorrow 9:30 A. M.

On motion the Council adjourned.

WHEELING, W. VA., JUNE 9, 1911, 9:30 A. M.

The council was called to order by the Bishop. Prayer by the Rev. Mr. Brydon.

Minutes of the previous day read and approved.

The order of the day having arrived, the Rev. Mr. Brydon moved that Hampshire Parish, having fulfilled all the Canonical requirements, be admitted into Union with the Council. The motion was adopted.

Maj. E. H McDonald offered the following which was unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That the salary of our Bishop Coadjutor be increased by $300.00 per annum from June 1, 1811 to be paid from the income of the Permanent Fund.

The Rev. Mr. Stryker moved that the name of the Rev. R. W. Trapnell be inserted in the Committee on Assessments instead of his own. On motion of the Rev. Mr. Brydon this motion was laid on the table.

The Rev. Mr. Willis and Maj. McDonald were excused from further attendance upon the Council.

The Rev. Mr. Brydon offered this: Inasmuch as the Council of the Diocese of West Virginia has provided for the salary of a General Missionary of the Diocese: Resolved that the General Missionary be given the official title of Archdeacon of the Diocese of West Virginia; which upon the motion of the Rev. Dr. Roller was laid on the table.

Mr. Sell offered this supplementary report to Committee on Parochial Reports.

The appended resolution was adopted.

The Committee on Parochial Reports in commending the advance in general excellence in the character of the reports by the Clergy at this Council desire at the same time to emphasize the importance of still more improvement in 1912.

First. Because this Diocese cannot afford to permit to exist the many discrepancies which are found now especially in the vital statistics from year to year. While these are not apparent on the face of any one year's report, a comparison of any two consecutive years invariably shows them.

Second. Because it is not fair to the members comprising the Committee to deprive them of the privilege of attendance on Council sessions for usually (now) about two days. They should not be expected to act as a board of auditors and expert accountants, when a session of a couple hours would be sufficient.

Every Rector should make it a matter of personal and parish pride to have his report above criticism with all blanks properly filled, all figures correctly totalled and consistent, not only with the face of the report itself, but with the figures as shown in the tabulations in the preceding year's Journal.

The attitude of amusement and jocularity towards failures, errors and omissions in this matter is a wrong one. The Clergy are charged in the public mind as being poor business men, and while this is not here admitted or so charged, it must be regretfully confessed that the position taken by a few of our Clergy, is seized upon as proof of the general culpability of all.

The blanks now in use are clear, plain and explicit. They ought to be returned to the Bishop in ample time before the date of Council meeting, and were this done, it is possible that all the tabulations could be made before the sessions were opened.

Your Committee calls attention to this subject in a most kind and friendly manner, both for the good of the good name of our Diocese, its Clergy and Parishes and because realizing the strenuousness of the work they have done, desire to make it easier for their successors next year.

Respectfully submitted,

Resolved, That the supplemental report of the Diocesan Reports Committee be printed in full in the Journal and that the Secretary be instructed to have a sufficient number of the same printed separately to accompany each blank sent out by him.

The Rev. J. S. Gibson, for the Committee, reported this:

The Committee on Constitution and Canons respectfully reports:

The proposed amendment to Canon 20 has been considered and it is recommended that the same be adopted.

Amended Canon 20, as follows:

Strike out all after the word "Parishes" in line 6 and insert: This Committee shall hold three stated meetings each year, one at the Winter Meeting of the Northwestern Convocation, one at the Autumn Meeting of the Kanawha Convention, and one at the meeting of the Annual Council.

Special meetings may be called by the Bishop or the Bishop-Coadjutor, if there be one. Annual report shall be made in writing to the Council.—Adopted.

The Rev. Mr. Gibson made this report for the Committee:

The Committee on Constitution and Canons respectfully reports:

The proposed amendment of Canon 10 has been considered and it is recommended that the same be adopted; to wit,

Resolved, That Canon 10 be amended as follows:

Add after the word "males" in line 3 page 15. Provided further, that the proposed new parish give the Council assurance that it can, without assistance from any Missionary board or committee, maintain its rector and provide him a suitable residence.—Adopted.

The Rev. J. S. Gibson, for the Committee, offered this which was adopted:

Resolved, That the matters referred to this Council by the General Convention be printed in the Journal of this Council and action thereon be deferred until the Council of 1912.

The following is the text of the communication from the General Convention:

THE GENERAL CONVENTION.

To the Council of the Diocese of West Virginia:

In compliance with the requirement of Article XI of the Constitution, I hereby make known that the following alterations of the Constitution of the Church are proposed: to wit, those comprised in the resolutions printed herewith, said resolutions having been constitutionally adopted by a General Convention held in the City of Cincinnati, in October, A. D. 1910.

HENRY ANSTICE,
Secretary of the House of Deputies.

New York.
April 15, A. D. 1911.

RESOLUTIONS.

Resolved, That the following change be made in the Constitution, and that the proposed alteration be made known to the several Dioceses, in order that the same may be adopted at the next General Convention, in accordance with Article XI of the Constitution, as follows:

Strike out Section 3 of Article I., and insert in place of it the following:

Section 3. Upon the expiration of the term of office of the Presiding Bishop, the General Convention shall elect the Presiding Bishop of the Church. The House of Bishops shall choose one of the Bishops having jurisdiction within the United States to be Presiding Bishop, by the vote of a majority of all the Bishops entitled to vote in the house of Bishops, such choice to be subject to confirmation by the House of Deputies.

His term and tenure of office shall be prescribed by Canons of the General Convention. His salary as Presiding Bishop shall be fixed and paid by the General Convention.

When, for any reason, a vacancy in the office shall occur, or if by reason of infirmity the Presiding Bishop shall become disabled, the House of Bishops shall elect one of its number to act as Presiding Bishop until the next meeting of the General Convention.

Resolved, That the following change be made in the Constitution, and that the proposed alteration be made known to the several Dioceses, in order that the same may be adopted at the next General Convention, in accordance with Article XI. of the Constitution, as follows:

Strike out Section 4 of Article I., and insert in place of it the following:

Section 4. The Church in each Diocese which has been admitted to union with the General Convention shall be entitled to representation in the House of Deputies by not more than four Presbyters, canonically resident in the Diocese, and not more than four Laymen, communicants of this Church, having domicile in the Diocese; but the General Convention by Canon may reduce the representation to not fewer than two Deputies in each order. Each Diocese shall prescribe the manner in which its Deputies shall be chosen.

The Church in each Missionary District within the boundaries of the United States of America, which shall have been established in accordance with the Constitution and Canons for the government of this Church, shall also be entitled to representation in the House of Deputies by not more than one Presbyter, canonically resident in the Missionary District, and not more than one Layman, communicant of this Church, having domicile in the Missionary District. Each Missionary District shall prescribe the manner in which its Deputies shall be chosen. Deputies from such Missionary District, except as otherwise provided in the Constitution, shall be subject to all of the qualifications and with all of the rights of Deputies from Dioceses.

To constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, the Clerical order shall be represented by at least one Deputy in each of a majority of the Dioceses entitled to representation, and the Lay Order shall likewise be represented by at least one Deputy in each of a majority of the Dioceses entitled to representation.

On any question the vote of a majority of the Deputies present shall suffice, unless otherwise ordered by this Constitution, or, in cases not specifically provided for by the Constitution, by Canons requiring more than a majority, or unless the Clerical or the Lay representation from any Diocese require that the vote be taken by orders. In all cases of a vote by orders, the two orders shall vote separately, each Diocese having one vote in the Clerical order and one in the Lay order, and each Missionary District within the boundaries of the United States of America having a one-fourth vote in the Clerical order and a one-fourth vote in the Lay order; and the concurrence of the votes of the two orders, by not less than a majority of whole votes in each order of all of the Dioceses and Missionary Districts within the boundaries of the United States of America represented in that order at the time of the vote, shall be necessary to constitute a vote of the House.

Resolved, That the following change be made in the Constitution, and that the proposed alteration be made known to the several Diocese, in order that the same may be adopted at the next General Convention, in accordance with Article XI: of the Constitution, as follows:

Strike out Section 6 of Article I., and insert in place of it the following:

Section 6. One Clerical and one Lay Deputy chosen by each Missionary District of the Church established by the House of Bishops, beyond the territory of the United States of America, and one Clerical and one Lay Deputy chosen by the Convocation of the American Churches in Europe, shall have seats in the House of Deputies, subject to all the qualifications and with all the rights of Deputies, except the right to vote when the vote shall be taken by orders.

Resolved, That the following change be made in the Constitution, and that the proposed alteration be made known to the several Dioceses, in order that the same may be adopted at the next General Convention, in accordance with Article XI. of the Constitution as follows: Amend the new Section 4 of Article II., so that the first sentence shall begin: It shall be lawful for a Diocese, with the consent of the Bishop of that Diocese, the consent of a majority of the Standing Committees of the Dioceses, and the consent of a majority of the Bishops of this Church exercising jurisdiction in the United States, to elect one or more Suffragan Bishops, etc.—

The Rev. Dr. Moore made report of Committee on Assessments.

1. Resolved, That the assessment for the Episcopal and Contingent Fund be the same as that laid last year.—Adopted.

2. Resolved, That the assessment for Diocesan Missions be laid in accordance with the tabulated statement presented by the Committee on Assessments.—(See Appendix C.)—Adopted.

Rev. Dr. Roller moved to recommit the third item to the Committee with instructions to make an apportionment for the whole sum of $6,390.

Pending the discussion of this report, the Council took recess.

2:30 P. M.

Council was called to order by the Bishop

Discussion of the Assessment Committee report was resumed.

The Rev. Mr. Lee offered this substitute to Dr. Roller's resolution, to-wit; that the Committee be instructed to report apportionment equal to the sums of the amount apportioned in present report plus amount of Auxiliary and Sunday Schools. Laid on table.

The Rev. Dr. Roller's resolution was adopted and the subject of Missionary apportionment was recommitted.

The Rev. Mr. Gibbons offered this:

Resolved, in view of the absence of the Rev. G. W. Easter from the session of this Council, that we hereby express our hearty good wishes for him, and regrets that he is unable to be with us, and that we congratulate him on the celebration of the 50th anniversary of his ordination.—Adopted.

The Rev. Mr. Spurr presented this report of the Committee on the State of the Church The appended resolutions were adopted

Your committee on the state of the church, rejoice in the note of progress which has marked the actions of this Council.

First: In the splendid token of esteem, which has been paid to Bishop Peterkin, at the close of his thirty-third year, as the Beloved Chief Shepherd and Bishop of this diocese, to whose human touch and earnest work most of our success and progress are due.

Second: To the love and loyalty proven by the Bishop Co-Adjutor in his earnest and constant work and which has been so graciously commended by Bishop Peterkin and acknowledged by the brethren. These things show the state of church life which argues well for our work.

Third: We believe that a great step has been taken for the permanence of our work in pledging the support of a General Missionary whose work shall enable us to maintain ground, already taken and to do something towards extending our borders. Then there is a note strangely like the Master's voice, as heard in the Bishop's address; when he speaks of over fifteen hundred patients cared for in The Sheltering Arms Hospital at Hansford and in The Reynolds Memorial Hospital at Glendale; where to remove or lessen the horrors and pains that make night hideous and sufferers yearn for the helping hand of God. Truly these things should make us thank God. But we would commend for your prompt consideration the ever increasing number of vacancies in our diocese and the meagre number of those in our Seminaries, who are preparing to enter the sacred office of the Ministry. We feel that the fact, emphasized in the Bishop's address of a more adequate salary and support for the men, who serve the King, is one means of meeting the difficulty, for it cannot be but that the men who are to preach cheerfulness and courage should be relieved of that dread fear and anxiety which comes to most mortals when the pay is not equal to the constant demands made upon it. This condition should be met and not theorized about, for God never intended in a properly organized church that His priests should lack. Then it cannot but strike men who really love the King, with something of a chill, when we reflect, that according to the splendid report of the Chairman of the Sunday School Committee, there are still twenty-five Counties in this diocese, where this church of ours is not represented by a Sunday School, or that according to the Bishop's report, there are sixteen counties in West Virginia where we have no church edifice or ministration through a priest. Surely whilst we rejoice in the advance that has been made; this church of ours in West Virginia with fifty-eight hundred communicants and two thousand others who work with us, should make prompt and earnest effort to redeem this condition of affairs and strive mightily to extend our stakes and carry Christ's comfort wherever needed. 'Tis true, that this will take money, but where men really believe and mean things, money can always be found, for it cannot be but that the gold and silver still belong to God, although the devil may seem to control the purse strings. Therefore we earnestly recommend that further effort be made to increase the meagre salaries of the clergy—that greater diligence be used in seeking out devoted men to enter the Ministry. For this purpose clergy and laity must make more constant and effective use of the appeal through the pulpit. The Sunday School and personal influence, and especially parents, must learn to hold up before the minds of their boys the ideal of service rather than material success as the standard of true manhood and achievement.

That the laymen of the church should be called upon for more abundant active service, where they can be used.

We recommend most heartily the work proposed to be done by The Federation of Churches in West Virginia, and the position which the Bishop has taken in connection with the same and it is hereby

Resolved that this Council approve the action of the Bishop in joining forces with other workers of Christian bodies in making the work of Christ effective.

Be it further resolved that authority be and is hereby given to the Bishop of this Diocese to relate this church to other bodies engaged in this movement in such manner as he may deem right and proper.

The Rev. Dr. Moore submitted this report of the Missionary Committee:

REPORT OF EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE OF THE DIOCESAN MISSIONARY SOCIETY.

The following report of the work of your Society for the past year is respectfully submitted:

No very material changes in the conditions of our work, as compared with those of last year, is to be noted.

Seventeen men, laboring in the many scattered mission fields of the Diocese, have received assistance from the income of the Society. In addition, as was the case a year ago, the report of the Treasurer shows that a small sum was placed in the hands of the Bishop-Coadjutor, and this was used by him for the maintenance of the work in several places by theological students during their summer vacation.

Total receipts for the year have been $4477.73. A balance carried over in the last report, amounted to $1852.26. Thus the entire sum, available for all purposes, has been $6329.99. Of this there has been used for the several purposes, here stated, viz.:

Assessment of Third Missionary Department	$ 25.00
Costs of administration	119.12
Various Stipends	4125.97
	<hr/>
Making a total	$4270.09

There is now in hand towards the work of the coming year the sum of $2059.90.

Much of this will be needed, almost immediately upon adjournment of this Council, for the payment of stipends, due July 1st.

We have occasion again to lament the existence of many vacancies in our missionary field. Three of the men upon our list have left us for other fields of labor during the past year, and another, we are informed, is about to leave the Diocese. Their places have as yet been filled only in part. But we have been able to welcome some additions to our ranks, which aid in supplying the loss.

There are many difficulties in our work—some hardships to be borne—some self-denial to be practised—but it is a live work, full of promise and encouragement, throbbing with interest—and one, with all its trials, well calculated to call forth all our energies and to attract and hold our interest.

We submit, as part of our report, this statement with reference to "The Church News."

The management of the "Church News" again respectfully calls the attention of the Council to the fact that it is entirely possible to make it a source of revenue to the Diocesan Mission's Fund. We have at present only 1300 names, but we ought to have the paper in every family. Even with 1300 names it should yield a profit, if care were taken at the other end of the line to collect for us at all places, and thus prevent the waste which is constantly occurring.

The Rev. Mr. Brydon offered this, which was referred to the Committee:

Resolved, That the Committee on Constitution and Canons be requested to formulate and report to the next Council if possible a Canon creating the office of Archdeacon in this Diocese and defining the duties of that office.

The Rev. Mr. Davidson offered the following, which was adopted:

Whereas, The Gospel is a message of peace to all nations, and Christ commends us to pass it on through the ages; that christian obligation is confined to no nation or creed; that national doors are open and the call imperative; that an "uneasy sense" of christian unity pervades the work of the universal Church; that the "signs of the times" point to a larger and more encouraging outlook upon the evangelization of mankind;

Be it hereby resolved, That this Council put itself on record that it is in full christian sympathy with the late utterances of the General Convention at Cincinnati, as expressing the mind of the Church upon the true oneness of God's people everywhere, and bids Godspeed to the Laymen's Missionary Movement as a timely and possible solution of the question of Church Unity.

The Rev. Mr. Davidson offered this preamble and resolution, which was laid on the table:

Whereas, The change of the name of this church has to do with some far-reaching questions of legislation and doctrine,

Be it Resolved, That a committee of two clergymen and two laymen be appointed by the chairman to take into consideration that portion of the the Bishop's address referring to the change of name and report to the next meeting of the Council.

The Council adjourned.

JUNE 10, 1911.

The Bishop called the Council to order. Prayer by the Rev. Mr. Lewis.

Authority was given the Bishop to appoint delegates to the Federation of Churches in this State.

Rev. Jno. S. Gibson, nominated members of the Missionary Council, Third Department, to serve until the next General Convention.

The following were elected:

Rev. J. S. Alfriend	W. D. Sell.
Rev. L. W. S. Stryker	R. M. Browne.
Rev. W. P. Chrisman	S. W. Washington.
Rev. R. D. Roller, D. D.	Frederick Fowler.

The Rev. Mr. Davidson offered the following, which was unanimously adopted:

Whereas, The Parishes of Wheeling have with their accustomed cordiality entertained the Thirty-Fourth Annual Council of the Diocese of West Virginia, making especial preparations therefor, doing everything in their power to facilitate business and provide for the comfort and pleasure of the delegates, clerical and lay,—

Be it Resolved, That this Council, by a rising vote, express its deep appreciation to the rector, vestrymen and ladies of Wheeling parishes for their delightful hospitality, with the Council's best wishes for every success in the future.

The order was changed in the meeting places of Council so as to make Martinsburg 1917, Clarksburg 1918, and Wheeling 1919.

The Rev. Mr. Trapnell invited the Council to meet in Bluefield next year which was accepted.

Ten dollars was appropriated to the sexton of St. Matthew's Church.

The Rev. Dr. Moore, for the Committee on Assessments, upon instructions from Council yesterday made the following revised report. The resolution was adopted. The apportionment will be found under Appendix C.

The Committee on Assessments presents this statement of apportionment to the several parishes and missions of the Diocese of the same, which the Diocese is asked to raise by the action of the Board of Missions.

Your Committee is impressed with the idea that, in view of the change of method of apportionment adopted by the Board, any scheme of distribution for the coming year must be in some measure tentative. We can only ask that, whatever scheme may be adopted, the best effort of all may be put forth to make that plan successful.

The Rev. Dr. Roller offered this. Adopted.

Resolved that the Committee on Assessments, is hereby instructed to send a circular letter to each rector and vestry, setting forth succinctly the reason for and the united action of the Council in making the increased assessments and apportionment all along the line of our work.

The Rev. Mr. Alfriend offered this in regard to the Brotherhood of St. Andrew. Adopted.

Whereas, The Brotherhood of St. Andrew has proven itself one of the most effective agencies in the church for enlisting the service of men and boys in personal service for the Savior,

Be it Resolved by this Council, That each clergyman be most earnestly urged to take some steps for the immediate organization of a Brotherhood Chapter in his parish or mission—and that the Deans of the respective Convocations be requested to take this matter under consideration

JNO. S. ALFRIEND,
HENRY B. LEE, JR.,
J. T. CROWE,
Committee.

The Rev. Dr. Moore moved that 600 copies of the Journal be printed for distribution. Carried.

The Rev. Mr. Brydon offered this, which was adopted:

Resolved, That this Council hereby express to the pastor and congregation of the Second United Presbyterian Church our sincere appreciation of their kindness in giving the use of their church building for the meetings of the Council. It has added in great measure to the comfort and convenience of the council meetings, and has given the members of the Council much pleasure to accept and make use of the christian kindness of our brethren.

600 copies of the Journal were ordered printed.

It was moved and carried that after reading the minutes, and suitable devotions by the Bishop, this Council adjourn sine die.

GEO. W. PETERKIN.

President.

ROBT. DOUGLAS ROLLER,

Secretary.

I beg to call the Council's attention to item of $200.00 May 26th, 1910. This was accounted for in my report of last year. It was sent at the last moment in order to meet the Bishops' Salaries after Mr. Ambler's report was printed. So your Committee will find that I gave the Permanent Fund credit for $200.00 more last year; consequently, it is $200.00 less this year.

Again, I remind the Council of the great importance of paying their assessments quarterly and that Council has ordered the Trustee to close his account May 1st.

Respectfully submitted,

R. M. BROWNE, Trustee.

Respectfully submitted,

B. M. AMBLER,

President.

Your Trustees call attention to the apparent lack of interest or neglect in making contributions to the Permanent Fund. There are thirty Parishes and thirty-three Missions in the Diocese. This year, only seventeen have paid the sum of $96.87; $46.28 of which was paid by three Parishes, thus leaving only $50.00 paid by all the Parishes and Missions in the Diocese.

Remarks—The migratory nature of this congregation which is drawn largely from workers at the pottery, renders permanent growth very improbable. While a balance of $21.46 is shown, there are outstanding bills not yet presented which will need more than that sum. There is, however, some rent due on the basement which will cover that and leave some over to start a fund for the repairing and painting of the outside of both Church and Rectory.

Remarks—Christ Church, Point Pleasant, received an Easter offering of $2491.62, including a generous contribution by Bishop Peterkin of $500, and while we are rejoicing over this good fortune, we regret that our offering for General Missions is only $10.52. All other pledges have been met, and we have the assurance that our apportionment for General Missions will be met in full next year. Congregations have been generally larger during the past year and the men are taking more active interest. It is said that the whole debt will be liquidated by next Easter. The work seems to be in a promising condition.

Remarks—Romney Mission has just been organized into a Parish, the bounds of which are coterminous with the County of Hampshire, and takes the name of Hampshire. All canonical requirements have been complied with and the Council will be asked at its June meeting to admit Hampshire Parish into union with it. The Vestry called the present Rector and pledge him salary to the extent of $300.00. This increased pledge dates back to Jan. 1st, 1911 and so there may seem a discrepancy in the figures about salary, but henceforth it will all be paid in full.

Statement—Current expenses raised by congregation as above, $83.49; objects without the Diocese, $1.00; total of contributions, $1.00; all money raised by the congregation for current expenses and for contributions, $84.49.

Remarks—The Mission still holds two eligibly situated lots. This season (1911) these are cultivated as a garden by Mr. B. R. Bias, who resides next door. There is a fund of $800.00 for a church building, but there is no earnest purpose to build in the minds of our few people. Services are held in the M. E. Church, South, kindly loaned for the purpose. Attendance upon the services is small. Williamson has now over 3000 population.

Statement—Current expenses raised by the congregation as above, $3142.48; for objects in the Parish, $1138.15; for objects in the Diocese, $900.15; for objects without the Diocese, $319.00; total of contributions, $2357.30; grand total of current expenses, and contributions, $5499.78.

Remarks—The Sunday School is not large because of the fewness of children in the families composing the parish. Many have no child—others only one, and only few as many as three. Of the ten men composing the Vestry, three are childless, two have two children each, four have one child of Sunday School age. The family of the other is adult. The same ratio will hold in the congregation. The Confirmation Classes are therefore necessarily small, and unless immigration brings in people who are churchmen the ratio of increase is bound to be small. Other churches in Huntington hold their members loyally to them, and there is no great chance to proselyte even if the spirit should prompt to it. The parish has, however, grown from 100 communicants in 1892 to 277 in 1911. The community has increased in population from about 14,000 in 1892 to about 35,000 in 1911.

Disbursements—Contributions (2) For objects in the Parish—Building and extraordinary repairs, $40.00; total contributions for objects in the Parish, $40.00.

Statement—Current expenses raised by the congregation as above, $40.

00; total of contributions, $40.00: grand total of current expenses, and contributions, $40.00.

Remarks—Services were discontinued in 1909 owing to removal of all our people excepting one who attends Trinity, Huntington. The church building is rented to a Baptist congregation for use on two Sundays and the Wednesdays of each month. The rent for some months past was consumed in putting in natural gas for heating and lighting. The rate of rental is $5.00 per month. All trustees as originally appointed having removed, others should by all means be appointed to hold title to the property by application to the judge at Wayne C. H.

Remarks—St. Paul's is a chapel in St. Matthew's Parish, Wheeling, and until other arrangements are made, its people are parishioners of the mother parish, and they are included in those of St. Matthew's church. During the past year, by sale of property on which chapel formerly stood, a fine new site was secured on high and central ground. The chapel was removed to this site, enlarged and remodelled within, and a well-equipped

Sunday School and Guild room was placed under the chapel. Regular weekly Sunday evening service is maintained by rector of St. Matthew's and lay readers, and a strong Sunday School is meeting every Sunday. Chapel formally re-opened, February 2, 1911.

REPORT OF REV. C. M. CAMPBELL.

Boone County, Christ Church.

"Brookside."

Racine, W. Va.,
May, 18, 1911.

My dear Bishop:

Unable still to prosecute the work out here in Boone County, of course there is no report to make, except this unfortunate fact and the following official acts: Baptisms, infants, 1; marriages, 2; burials, 1.

It would make me very happy to attend the Council so soon to convene in Wheeling, but you know only too well why I cannot do so.

With earnest prayers for yourself and all my brethren, believe me always

Respy, and affectionately your son in the Church,

C. M. CAMPBELL.
